Hitler Enters Election Race For Reichstag

Carries Fight For Unrestricted Power Into March 5 Elections

CONTINUES BATTLE ON COMMUNISTS

Gigantic Public Works Program Is Now Planned By Hitler

By EDWARD L. DEUSS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, Feb. 3.—With Germany's Communists organizing to undermine his regime by a nationwide campaign of strikes and violence, Chancellor Adolf Hitler carried his fight for unrestricted power into the open today by announcing himself as a candidate for a Reichstag seat in the elections scheduled for March 5.

It will be the first time in his long political career that Hitler has ever been a parliamentary candidate.

For the dual purpose of encouraging his Nazi followers to unprecedented activity and of proving to the Communists that he has no fear of an adverse verdict at the polls, Hitler ordered that his name be put at the head of the ticket in all election districts.

Oppose Communists.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

The groundhog must have seen it's shadow, for the weather this morning didn't hold any promises of an early spring.

Even though St. Valentines day is more than a week away Pa Newc observed a group of school children today exchanging valentines in an ecstasy of delight.

State Police and State Highway patrolmen on duty in this city have had a period of inactivity, insofar as serious matters are concerned, for the past few weeks. The highway patrol day and night makes their patrols as do members of the State police.

Pa Newc observed that the down town street lights were being given a bath Friday.

Changes Are Coming In State School Code Local Directors Say

Convinced that the present session of the Pennsylvania General Assembly will be the most important one in years, from an educational standpoint, W. Walter Duff and Attorney Roy W. Hazen, directors of the New Castle school board, have returned from Harrisburg where they attended the annual convention of the Pennsylvania school directors.

"There are bound to be some important changes in the school code," said Mr. Duff. "During our stay in Harrisburg we talked with many school directors, many of the legislators on the educational committees of the house and senate, and with the department of public instruction officials, and there is an unanimity of opinion that some changes will be made. There seems little doubt that the minimum salary provision of the Edmonds act will be lowered, just how much being the point of dispute. Legislators feel that it should be 20 per cent, while the department officials are standing out for nothing more than 10 per cent. In addition there is a possibility of the annual increment being abandoned for a period of two years.

Trip Productive.

"Looking at the convention from the standpoint of the second class school districts, I am of the opinion that we are getting somewhere in

"Buy American" Plan Advanced

Senate Prepared To Order Governmental Departments To "Buy American"

ORDER SAVING OF $45,000,000

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—After authorizing a 5 per cent economy slash in treasury and postoffice expenditures, the senate today was prepared to order all government departments to "buy American".

The "buy American" proposal, an amendment to the pending $961,000,000 treasury-postoffice appropriation bill, would direct governmental officials to purchase American goods, articles or products exclusively unless such a course were excessive in cost or against the public interest.

The Democratic economy drive meanwhile resulted in the senate authorizing the secretary of the treasury and the postmaster general to save 5 per cent of their appropriations in the coming year. The saving could total $45,000,000. Great discretionary power was left to the cabinet officers to achieve this economy but they were expressly forbidden to reduce salaries or furlough employs.

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Feb. 3.—With a million and one home talent problems that ought to be worrying our lawmakers, why they are still excited about the debts. England is paid up till June, so why start worrying now about June?

Suppose the unemployed had work till June, the hungry food till June, they could rest mighty easy for awhile. But they haven't got it.. But the debts are paid till June.

I bet if you diagnosed all our troubles and listed 'em in the order of their importance to us right now, you would find debts awful near the bottom. Any problem that is even temporarily settled up to four months ahead is no problem nowadays.

FOUR PERFECT BRIDGE HANDS

Remarkable Incident Is Reported In Bridge Game Played Here

A lone perfect hand in bridge is not at all rare, at least not as rare as what happened Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Foster on Winter avenue, who was entertaining a group of friends belonging to a club. Contract bridge was the diversion. Mrs. Robert E. Fleming cut the cards and Mrs. John McConahy dealt them out.

When all had received their cards, each had a feeling of victory soon to be won, for each of the four ladies playing had a perfect hand, 13 of the same suit, Mrs. McConahy having it in hearts, Mrs. Myron Rice in spades, Mrs. Ace Moore in clubs and Mrs. Robert E. Fleming in diamonds.

The play went on merrily and the hand ended in a victory for Mrs. Myron Rice, who had what is called a "grand slam" with the aid of her spades.

State And County Officers Probe Charge That Tragedy May Have Been Of Incendiary Origin—Ridgecliffe Sanitarium Dormitory Burns Early This Morning

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, Feb. 3.—State and county officers today launched a dual probe into charges that an incendiary plot was responsible for the disastrous blaze at the Ridgecliff Sanitarium, Wickliffe, in which eight women patients were burned to death and a ninth was reported missing.

Fifteen other inmates and two nurses escaped unhurt from the flames, which burned one of the three sanitarium buildings to the ground.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 3.—Nine women patients at the Ridgecliff Sanitarium in Wickliffe, a suburb, were burned to death today when fire razed a woman's dormitory at the institution.

A suspected incendiary plot was being investigated in connection with the fire, from which 15 other patients and two nurses escaped unhurt.

Bodies of all nine victims were discovered in the mass of debris after firemen gained control of the flames at the end of a five-hour battle. The bodies were badly burned, making identification difficult.

Victims of Fire.

Bodies recovered and positively or tentatively identified are as follows:

Mrs. Isabelle McBride, 60, Cleveland.

Miss Lorane Dean, 76, Cleveland.

Mrs. Mary Bennett, 70, Wickcliffe.

Mrs. Lottie Robach, 32, Cleveland.

Miss Helen Kovach, 49, Cleveland.

Mrs. Agnes Dorrington, 78, Cleveland.

Mrs. Fannie Loudon, 54, Shaker Heights.

Miss Ethel Zipp, 24, Cleveland.

Missing and believed dead:

Miss Gladys Fraser, 30, Cleveland.

Five of the bodies were found piled in a corner of one room of the razed structure.

Probe Plot Charge.

As the bodies were recovered, officials launched a thorough investigation to determine the cause of the fire. A charge that the blaze was due to an incendiary plot was made by Dr. William Glendenning, a member of the sanitary staff.

Eye-Witness Tells Of Fire

Male Attendant At Sanitarium Says Patients Were Panic Stricken

Samuel Brady, one of the male attendants at the Ridgecliff sanitarium at Wickliffe, O., describes in the following article how nine persons burned to death in a cottage there today.

By SAMUEL BRADY
(Written Expressly for International News Service.)

RIDGECLIFF SANITARIUM, WICKLIFFE, O., Feb. 3.—The first thing I want to say is that we had trouble in summoning the fire department after we discovered smoke in the cottage that was burned.

We couldn't get the firemen on the phone and one of the nurses had to run and summon them.

When I arrived at the cottage it was smoking. It did not burst into flames for 10 or 15 minutes.

I saw several people on the second floor and with William Glendenning, Jr., a son of the superintendent, I ran and got a ladder. We placed it against the window and ran up it.

We carried four persons out. When we tried to rescue the patients they all tried to fight us off. We had to overpower them. I found one aged woman hiding under a bed. We might have saved more only the patients were panic stricken.

Two night nurses were escorting patients out from the first floor. After about 10 minutes, the smoke burst into flames and all rescue attempts had to be stopped. There was the wildest panic I ever saw. We did our best and there might have been a different ending if the fire department could have gotten here quicker.

Relatives Here Of Mrs. McBride

Mrs. Isabelle McBride, 60, who perished in the Wickliffe fire early today, is the mother of Harold McBride of this city and a sister of George McNally, W. A. McNally, Mrs. Arthur Surridge, and Miss Lillian McNally, all of whom reside here.

George and W. A. McNally were notified by telephone of the catastrophe and left for Cleveland immediately. Mrs. McBride had been an invalid for a number of years, having suffered a paralytic stroke about five years ago.

No announcements as to funeral arrangements were possible today.

The groundhog's been and the groundhog's gone and there's six more weeks of the winter I guess, for the superstition is as you know a shadow means six weeks more, no less. Now maybe it will and perhaps it wont, but whether or not means not so much, for the winter's mild and the weather's fine, with little of snow or ice or such. So groundhog shadows are meaningless, if the winter we've had just continues to stay, let the groundhog sleep till the spring is here, the weather is forty two today.

ROOSEVELT TO START VACATION JAUNT

Roosevelt To Leave Warm Springs For Trip On Astor's Yacht

FORMER REPUBLICAN MAY BE IN CABINET

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Feb. 3.—Thirteen days of intensive cabinet building neared an end today as President-Elect Roosevelt prepared to desert Warm Springs for one final vacation jaunt before inauguration.

Tonight, the next chief executive will entrain for Jacksonville, Fla., where tomorrow he boards Vincent Astor's yacht for a ten day cruise in southern waters.

It appeared today the strategists of the Democratic high command were about ready to put a former Republican into the cabinet as Secretary of Agriculture-Henry Wallace, of Iowa, farm paper editor and son of the man who died in that same position under the late President Warren G. Harding.

Cabinet Forecast

The younger Wallace has turned against the G. O. P. since his father's death and supported the Democratic ticket.

As nearly as could be ascertained a recapitulation of Mr. Roosevelt's efforts here to pick his official family, in addition to Wallace's reported selection, would indicate that Senator Cordell Hull, of Tennessee, was likely to be his secretary of state; Senator Carter Glass, of Virginia, the next secretary of treasury; Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Montana, the next attorney general; James A. Farley, of New York, the postmaster general; Senator Bronson Cutting; insurgent Republican, of New Mexico, his secretary of interior, and Miss Frances Perkins, labor commissioner of New York state, the new secretary of labor and first woman ever to hold a cabinet post.

If these selections, as intimated by some of the President-Elect's close friends, are accurate, and Mr. Roosevelt vows he will not have his cabinet ready for announcement until March 2 or 3, there still remain to be filled the portfolios for war, navy and commerce.

Mr. Roosevelt expects to devote part of his time aboard the "Nourmahal" to consideration of these gaps in his cabinet personnel.

was linked in the charges by the physician, according to authorities.

The farmer, police said, formerly furnished the sanitarium with provisions but was discharged. Yesterday he was alleged to have telephoned Mrs. Glendenning, wife of the doctor, and threatened "I'll get even if it kills me."

Wild Confusion.

Scenes of wild confusion followed the discovery of the fire, as attempts were made to save all of the trapped victims. Some were led to safety, while others had to be carried down ladders which were hastily placed to windows of the burning cottage.

Rescue work was handled by nurses and attendants until the Wickliffe fire department arrived. Several minutes were lost in summoning firemen when proper telephone connections could not be made.

The blaze burned quickly, and the rescue efforts had to be halted when the flames barred all entrances into the house.

For a time it was believed that all of the patients had been saved. They could not be accounted for at the sanitarium but officials believed they might have fled from the scene. As the fire was extinguished, however, two of the bodies could be seen among the wreckage, and further search revealed the other seven.

Owing to the charred condition of some of the bodies, officials expressed doubt whether some of them could be positively identified.

The fire, according to Mrs. Virginia Glendenning superintendent of the sanitarium and wife of Dr. Glendenning, started in the hallway below the first floor.

Miss Ethel Craig and Miss Florence Farrell, nurses, led the terror-stricken inmates to safety.

The delay in the arrival of the fire department was caused by the fact that phone connections could not be made immediately, according of Mrs. Glendenning. She said she did not blame the fire department for the delay.

State Fire Marshals Val Hafner and J. P. Hopkins of Cleveland went to Wickliffe to conduct an investigation of the blaze after the fire had been extinguished.

The damaged cottage was a one and a half story frame building, one of the three on the sanitarium property. The blaze razed the structure to the ground, leaving only the chimney standing. It was valued at $17,500.

tion with an alleged plot of poison several persons and collect large insurance policies taken out on their lives. They also are under indictment for the death of Andrew Allas, Steve's brother.

The jury's verdict was returned after 22 hours deliberation.

Without Emotion

Both women heard the verdict without emotion, staring straight ahead. Back in the packed spectator's seats, 15-year-old Anna Chalfa, daughter of Mrs. Chalfa, wept silently.

Assistant District Attorney John Haggery said he believed the conviction was the first on record where two women had been sentenced to life imprisonment at the same time.

The state's case was built on the testimony of neighbors, friends and relatives of the defendants who related that the women had fed Steve and Andrew "holy water" and tea just before their deaths. Both boys were declared to have died in "agony," complaining of stomach cramps.

Fortune Teller

The commonwealth contended the tea and "holy water" contained stanneous chloride. Testimony of Mrs. Gizella Young, Czechoslovakian fortune-teller, that the women confessed to her the murder of the boys was the highlight of the prosecution.

Defense attorneys constructed a case designed to create a dought in the jury's mind by calling expert chemists to testify that stanneous chloride is not necessarily fatal. Schoolboy chums of Steve, his father and doctors said he died from injuries received in a football game.

Old world superstitions and the powers of "black magic" entered the nine-day trial when the women, denying guilt from the stand, testified they were under a strange "spell" cast over them by Mrs. Young.

Explaining what he hoped to accomplish, Smoot stated:

Challenge Flung Down

Senator Reed (R) of Pennsylvania, a finance committee member, pointed to criticisms heaped upon Congress by leaders of the business world and challenged the latter to formulate a program of their own.

"Many business leaders are talking disdainfully about what Congress is doing to remedy economic conditions," said Reed. "We would like to have their ideas.

"We don't know how to cure the depression by legislation, and I personally don't think it can be cured that way. I feel that bad legislation will only get us deeper into the hole."

TECHNOCRATS GET VERY RUDE SHOCK

By G. EVERETT DOYING
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 3.—When technocracy advocates received their first shock a week ago, a new creed of taxocracy which favored taxing tangibles and intangibles alike, the technocrats just grinned and bore it.

But today, well today brought another blow, a blow below the belt according to the technocrats, and it was delivered by no less than a new cause, technology.

Technocracy Scored

One after another at a meeting here of technocracy's detractors, the technologists got up and said things ranging from satire to ridicule.

Frank J. Chesterman, vice president of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, led off. He said:

"To the extent that such false prophets are credited, to that extent is our recovery delayed."

George S. Davidson, president of the Davison Coal and Coke Company, "declined" technocracy's lure thusly:

"Technocracy would put engineers in the place of the bankers and the old management and we just want to say, Thank you, No!"

Dr. Francis D. Tyson, of the University of Pittsburgh, swung a hard verbal uppercut. He said:

"The issue between technology and technocracy is the issue between scientific approach and propaganda."

E. C. Stone, assistant to the president of the Philadelphia company, opined that the factual material upon which technocratic conclusions are drawn is "inaccurate and grossly exaggerated in many cases."

its uncreasing efforts to stamp out Communist activity.

A dramatic emergency decree is expected to be issued tonight providing for strict "regulation" of opposition newspapers and suppression of antagonistic political meetings. The decree will be aimed chiefly against the Communists.

More blood was spilled as the so-called subversive elements swore defiance against the regime they fear will try to exterminate them.

At Witten, four Socialists were seriously wounded and seven others were injured when a group of Nazis fired on a demonstration against the new government.

Eleven Are Killed.

The death-toll in political riots since Hitler's emergence to power was placed at 11.

Ernst Torgler, Communist floor leader of the dissolved Reichstag, told International News Service:

"The Communist party is working feverishly to cement a united front of 16,000,000 workers, and we expect to accomplish this shortly.

"If the Fascist terror increases, we will call a general strike, regardless of any efforts the Socialists may make at conciliation."

Plans Public Works.

Berlin, Feb. 3.—A gigantic 2,000,000,000 mark program for construction of public works is a chief feature of Adolf Hitler's four-year plan for combatting unemployment and rehabilitating Germany industrially and financially, it was disclosed today.

Also included in Hitler's program for restoring Germany to her former prosperity is a project for dictatorial reduction of interest rates on state and private indebtedness and a reduction of the capital amounts of state and private debts which now total 90,000,000,000 marks.

our stand against the proposal to reduce second and third class district appropriations, and increase the fourth class. There is a decided sentiment against this proposal as well as many others of the ten year plan. The plan contains a number of beneficial proposals, but because of the uncertainty existing in the legislature, the whole thing may have trouble."

Mr. Duff and Mr. Hazen did not spend any considerable time on the floor of the school directors' convention. As president of the second Class School Districts association Mr. Duff appointed a committee of three to handle the association's problems in the convention while he and Mr. Hazen interviewed members of the house and senate educational committees. They also attended a public hearing of the house educational committee.

After attending the convention they are both of the opinion that the plan to reduce the second and third class schools districts will not succeed. Like the other school directors they endeavored to build up sentiment against the proposal to make any slashing reductions in school appropriations. The reduced income of the state this year will make some decreases necessary but the directors convention felt that the slashes could be made in other branches of the school system than the public school appropriations.

Homicides Show Increase In '32, Fewer Unsolved

Records Show 144 Murders In Philadelphia With Few Slayers Escaping

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 3.— Although homicides increased in this city last year as compared with 1931, records of Detective Captain Harry Heanley, of the murder squad, reveal that less than 9 per cent of the murderers evaded arrest.

Of 144 slayings in Philadelphia in 1932, only 12 remain unsolved. In 1931 there were 121 homicides and no arrests were made in 20 of them. The high mark for homicides in Philadelphia was in 1928 when 172 persons were slain.

The outstanding unsolved murders during the year recently ended were the deaths of Norman Bechtel, Mennonite Sunday school teacher and Frank C. Smythe, a civil engineer. The latter was brutally beaten to death, presumably by a Negro robber, in the Pennsylvania railroad's new subway.

Heanley described the Bechtel case "as the most baffling murder any police force has had to deal with." Bechtel's body, pierced many times with a knife, was found on the lawn of a closed estate in a secluded section of Chestnut Hill.

Of four gangster murders, none of which has approached solution, the principal was the shooting of Eddie Regan, notorious underworld character, who was "put on the spot" by racketeers in a semi-exclusive apartment house near Broad street and Olney avenue.

Another gang killing that stumped police was the slaying of Joseph Mygotz, better known under the alias "Two-Gun" Murray, an ambidextrous sure-shot with a pistol. Like Regan, Mygotz also met death "on the spot." His executioners "gave him his load of lead" after posing for two days as his new, friendly neighbors in a central city apartment house.

Don't imagine that you can shock your system every few days with laxatives and fail to pay the price. Laxatives and purges rob the delicate membrane lining of your bowels of moisture and elasticity, so that you have to continue drugging more and more to spur your reluctant bowels to action. Almost before you realize your peril, you're a laxative slave. Digestive troubles develop, headaches, dizzy spells and biliousness follow. An operation for piles or other intestinal trouble may result.

But you can free yourself from laxative slavery and constipation quickly and easily with Cream of Nujol treatment.

This new form of Nujol is specially suited to sufferers from chronic constipation. It soothes and comforts the bowels, absorbs poisons, and helps the peristaltic action which alone can dispose of wastes naturally.

Start the new harmless Cream of Nujol treatment tonight. It is delicious to take and costs you only a few cents a day.

Stop at your druggist's and get a bottle tonight

To make Children
EAT

Don't force children to eat! The girl or boy who has no appetite has stasis—which means the child is sluggish. But cathartics have caused more constipation than they ever cured! The "California treatment" is best—just pure fig syrup. Try this for a few days then see how eagerly your youngster will eat.

How to Conquer Sluggishness

Stimulate the colon and that child with a finicky appetite will devour everything set before him. Here's the simple treatment that does more for babies or older children than all the diets, fad foods, or tonics.

Nature has provided the only "medicine" you'll need to stir a child's colon muscles into proper action. California fig syrup. Pure, delicious, harmless. It acts on the lower colon—where the trouble is. It has no ill effects on the intestines.

Begin tonight, with this marvelous "California treatment." Any druggist has California fig syrup, all bottled, with directions. Use enough the first time to cleanse the clogged colon of every bit of poison and hard waste. Then just a little twice a week until the child's appetite, color, weight and spirits tell you the stasis is gone. Whenever a cold or other upset clogs the system again, use this natural vegetable laxative instead of drastic drugs.

WARNING

There are dealers who practice substitution. Be sure to protect your child by looking for the name CALIFORNIA on the bottle.

UNIFORM ASSESSING

STEPS being taken by the county authorities to bring about a conference of all assessors, in the near future, to get a tangible basis of valuation for properties throughout the county for the tri-ennial assessments should be carried through to a conclusion.

As related in the call for the conference, there are far too many standards for tax valuation of properties in this county. The ultimate result is that there is an unequal division of the tax assessed.

While it is realized that there can be no set rule by which all property in the county can be assessed, there can be a more nearly equitable basis for the assessment than has heretofore been the situation.

There are far too many assessors doing the work, that is one big reason for the condition. No matter how fair and just the assessors may aim to be, there are factors that will influence some of them and not the others.

Certain it is that the matter of uniform assessing of property in the county is a big problem, and the conference that is proposed by the county commissioners should result in some progress is solving it.

REDUCE WASTE AND SUFFERING

The American people customarily burn up about $500,000,000 worth of property each year. About 10,000 human lives are included. This is a tragic burden on every community. Each fire adds to the toll in lost jobs, lost business opportunities, human sorrow and suffering.

In depressed times, when jobs are at a premium and taxation at a maximum, and when the nation sorely needs every business, we still burn up about $500,000,000 worth of property annually. During the first ten months of 1932, fire loss was approximately $5,000,000 greater than in 1931, a year in which the waste was practically the same as in the preceding three or four years.

If fire waste works a great hardship in normal times, what is its effect in an era of depression? There can be no question but that the destruction of homes, factories and places of business is not only an obstacle in the way of recovery, but an abetter or more hard times. The indirect cost of fire is always the most important. A factory burns—men are thrown out of work, hardship, distress and poverty result.

Fire prevention is both an obligation and a duty that the citizen owes to himself, to his community and to the nation. Nearly every fire is caused by carelessness—because someone neglected to give the little time and the little money that would have been necessary to eliminate a hazard. Do your bit in the cause of fire prevention and save human suffering.

POWER OF WILL

Doctors give "the will to live" as one of the strongest opponents of death.

When the mind accepts death as a foregone conclusion and surrenders, the fight against disease is almost hopelessly handicapped.

Lord Byron, in his youth, was told by a fortune-teller that he would die in his thirty-seventh year. The idea haunted him, and when he became ill after his thirty-seventh birthday anniversary he remembered the prophecy and, prompted by his superstitious belief in soothsaying, said he was destined to die in that year. He died that year, but the conviction that his time to die had not yet arrived might have helped him get well.

A centenarian in an eastern town recently predicted that he would die on a certain day and at a certain hour. He died suddenly a half hour before the appointed hour. Doctors believe the strain of waiting for the end was too great for the aged man's heart and that he might have lived several years longer had his imagination not exposed his heart to the fatal trial.

If he can make his patient determined to get well the doctor considers the battle half won. But the fight is all up hill when the patient thinks he must die and is just waiting for the end.

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR OF HORROR

Parental complaint is heard against a surfeit of blood and thunder in commercial radio programs designed especially to intrigue juvenile interest. Many letters on the subject have reached The Daily News from disturbed mothers. Parent-teacher associations are discussing the effect of that sort of mental diet on child minds. An adult revolt seems to be brewing.

It is alleged that at the twilight hour, when 8-year-old Jimmy tunes in, the serenity of the home is assailed by raucous growls of desperate hoodlums, shrill screams of terrified victims, rattle of gunfire and groans of the dying. In an atmosphere shivery with stealthy plotting and sanguinary with violent deeds, the temperature of Jimmy's imagination rises to fever heat. Later he kicks off the bedclothes and arouses his slumbering parents with yells of nightmare panic.

Girls of tender years, no less than boys, have developed a taste for the radio successor of the dime novel. They listen with gasps of creepy fascination to blood-curdling drama that, by vocal and imitative sound, carried intenser thrill and horror than does the printed word.

Theorists will differ as to the harmful effect such entertainment may have on the immature, beyond a temporary overstimulation and a crowding out of better provender for thought and emotion. It is certain, however, that, although it may profit the sponsors of the programs, it contributes nothing desirable to the mental equipment of the child; and if it alienates adult approval obviously it will not long profit the sponsors.

It is to be regretted that material of so dubious a sort should be used when there is so vast a reservoir of heroic deed and stirring adventure, of whimsical fancy and magic wonder, on which to draw for children's programs. In days when crime is a social problem of first magnitude, feeding crime thrills as leisure time enjoyment to infant minds is surely to be deprecated, and good homes are justified in resenting an invasion of the undesirable so easily made and so difficult to prevent. Moreover, to provoke such resentment scarcely can be wise business policy.—The Chicago Daily News.

THE GOOD COMPANION

You'd think, watching some people, observing the way they live, that life is a delicate thing that must be handled with exceeding care, for fear it might be smutched like new-fallen snow, or discolored as a magnolia blossom is at the touch of a hand, or dissipated like a shining bubble, or broken to bits like a precious but delicate teacup.

But people who hold life so gingerly in their hands are storing up trouble for themselves.

They have set their hearts on a certain kind of life that must not be disturbed, cannot be rearranged without pain, without tragedy.

They have decided arbitrarily that life is fixed and unchangeable, as definite as a statue made from stone, and that it must be kept as it is forever and forever.

And grief and anxiety wait always at their elbows. Until they learn that life is no fragile toy nor movable possession.

Because life is surely not so delicate as all that. Life is stubborn and life is tough. You beat life down and break it to bits, but it springs up again. Melt it down and shape it anew, lash it and shatter it and tear it to pieces. In the morning, it is at your door again.

You say: "My life is over. The treasure I held so precious is lost to me forever. I said my heart would break and my heart IS broken. There's nothing left for me now but dull existence. I am at an end."

You think so, indeed. But life has the last word. In the fog there's a gleam. On the stark twig a bud appears. In your east the darkness is a shade less and the great sky lightens to the dawn. Despite all that fretful human beings can do, life will not be denied and life survives. Life never knows when it is beaten. You cannot drive it from your house with insults, with pouting, with loud abuse. Life is your stubbornly persistent friend. No enemy, but your good companion. Always within you. And you are a part of life as much as life is a part of you.

FRAIL PLANS

You may be slipping morally and in other ways.

At first you did not overstep the bounds you know are right.

But as time passed your infractions became more serious, didn't they?

Isn't your sense of right and wrong becoming impaired or "more elastic"?

Actions that at first shocked you, now don't affect you at all.

Your ideals have descended so far that they have little to do in controlling your actions in wrong doing.

It is an easy matter to quiet conscience once this has been done.

You don't have to be told in what way you are doing wrong—you know.

Have you ever thought of your ultimate destination?

Oh, you have sense enough to quit in time, have you?

You won't reach a dangerous point but so say all those who are punished for crime and the prisons are full of them.

Jails are crowded by those who thought they were smart enough to thwart the forces sent out to stop them.

They were confident that all loopholes of evidence were closed.

You have the same opinion, but you would better stop before it is too late.

The fates of those behind the bars should show you how frail were their plans.

As men went racing up and down
Upon a chair he sat him down,
And thought and fancied all day long
It must be good to be so strong;
It must be good to plan and build
An edifice with splendor filled;
It must be good to come at night,
Victor or vanquished from a fight,
And have a stirring tale to tell
To all of those you love so well.

Except a necessary task.
In spring my tulip beds are fair,
A hired gardener sets them there.
In summer from my sheltered room
I watch the roses come to bloom.
But I know not their names, nor why
Some thrive while others pine and die.
I think it must be good to know
The way to make a garden grow.

He stood, like one entranced by dreams,
Admiring men who swung on beams
And reared great buildings, stone by stone,
And wished their cares to him were known.
Thought he: "It must be good to fret
And feel the heavy weight of debt;
To face a future dark with doubt
And bravely work your own way out.
I wish I knew the burdens, which
Life keeps away from people rich."

Glass Measure Is Credited With Strong Banking Basis

Administrative Features Arouse No Opposition, Although Branch Banking Still Remains A Subject Of Controversy

Passage by the senate of the Glass banking bill, with some amendments, is favorably received by the country, but concurrence by the house is held to be doubtful, because of limited time. Most of the changes in administrative lines arouse no opposition, although branch banking and affiliated companies still remain a matter of controversy.

"The bill did not attempt," according to the ROANOKE WORLD-NEWS, "to set up a uniform banking system for the country. Rather it sought to repair at certain points a banking system that has had the record of 4,000 failures during a period in which there has not been a single bank failure in the Dominion of Canada, where branch banking is Dominion-wide. The Glass bill did not attempt to bring all commercial banks, state and national, small and large, into the Federal Reserve system. It does attempt to gather up a number of loose ends in banking practice, some of which have come about through the competition between state and national banks, the desire of the states to lower their standards to invite state charters, and of the Federal government to lower restrictions to invite national charters."

"As it finally passed," according to the SPOKANE SPOKESMAN-REVIEW, "the bill has so many points of merit that its failure to pass this congress would be a misfortune. The need is immediate for a federal corporation to speed the payment of dividends to depositors in closed banks, which have assets approximating $2,500,000,000. Immediate, too, is the need of sound, constructive support for institutions that are verging upon insolvency." The SPRINGFIELD (MASS.) REPUBLIC holds that "the merits of the bill outweigh its doubtful features so heavily that this congress would perform an exceptional public service in making the bill's passage part of its record." That paper also declares that the fact that "the present revision of the bank laws originated in the senate under Senator Glass' personal guidance and supervision really commends it to the best informed financial opinion of the country, whatever differences concerning the bill's details may divide the banking community.

"Its principal purposes," observes the HARTFORD TIMES, "deserve public support contemplating, as they do, restriction of bank credit to be used for speculative purposes, abandonment of 'affiliates,' the creation of a federal liquidation corporation to assist suspended banks, and a tightening of federal supervision. The form of the bill as it now stands has not yet been widely published and it is to its technical aspects rather than as to its substantial aims that influential objection has been chiefly engendered. The present Federal Reserve system was nearly 15 years in agitation before it was enacted. That the important changes now advocated by Senator Glass are to be authorized soon enough for him to regard them as crowning exploit of his career is possible despite the current hesitant or adverse comment of leading members of the house."

"There can be no contention," remarks the CHARLOTTE OBSERVER, "against the provision that limits use of Federal Reserve credit for stock gambling purposes. It is a square deal given the national banks in granting them the same powers possessed by state banks of deposit and discount organized in the states in which such national banks are located. National banks are permitted to purchase and sell investment securities for their customers to the same extent as heretofore, but hereafter they are to be authorized by their own account, only under such limitations as the comptroller may prescribe."

Summarizing the general purposes represented, the TOPEKA DAILY CAPITAL says of the measure: "It is calculated to put commercial banks into commercial banking and keep them there, turning investment banking over to investment financial corporations unaffiliated with commercial banks, halt the scandal of prolonged bank receiverships and stop the financing of Wall Street by commercial banks. While it is the opinion of the senate committee that thousands of small communities will not obtain adequate local banking facilities without branch banking, yet this is not the larger purpose of the bill, but to confine commercial banking strictly to its proper function of providing credit for industries and business of the country, and thereby restore public confidence in the banking system."

Legislators In Capital Discuss Tax Conditions

Tax Reform Will Be Topic Of Nearly 100 Representatives At Washington

HOOVER WELCOMES DELEGATES TODAY

Hope To Prevent Duplicate And Overlapping Levies On Burdened Taxpayers

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Tax reform which will prevent duplicate and overlapping levies on the overburdened taxpayer was the goal sought today by legislators from 30 states who gathered here for a two-day discussion.

President Hoover welcomed the legislators to the capital and wished them success "in this most important field".

"It is a very great pleasure to welcome this first interstate conference of legislators to Washington," he said. "The subject of your discussions is one of the most important problems before the nation.

Conscious of Burden.

"The depression has naturally made the nation urgently conscious of the tax burden, but the problem is much older than that. The abolition of governmental functions of municipalities, townships, counties and states has led to haphazard development of sources of taxation to support these functions. The result has been a perfect maze of overlapping and conflicting tax systems with inevitable invasion by one authority of tax areas properly belonging to another authority.

"If your conscience can help to make scientific division of the tax sources amongst the various governmental authorities you will have made a distinct contribution to the efficiency as well as to the economy of our whole governmental system. I warmly hope your deliberations may produce fruitful results in this most important field."

Many Representatives.

Approximately 100 representatives from 30 states were here for the conference. The assembly was called primarily to consider the problems of conflicting taxation. Leaders expected formation of a group to confer annually with federal officials on the overlapping phases of taxation and to work out an equitable tax basis for state and federal officials.

Franklin S. Edmonds of Philadelphia, president of the National Tax association, and Clyde L. King, former secretary of revenue for Pennsylvania, were among the leaders.

Ready To Start Use Of Scrip On Saturday Morning

South Side Board Of Trade To Inaugurate System To Boost Business

Scrip issued by the South Side Board of Trade will be circulating freely in the South Side business district Saturday, it was announced today by the officials of the board.

The scrip to be placed in use was delivered from the printer today. As the scrip is simply a voucher signed by two officers of the board, and a pledge to repay the holder at the end of a twenty-four week period the full face value of the same.

It is being issued in two denominations as a matter of convenience, namely one dollar and fifty cents. The dollar scrip vouchers are slightly larger than the dollar bill of the regular United States currency. That for fifty cents varies but slightly from that for one dollar.

Names of the merchants, who have agreed to accept the scrip in place of cash, are shown on the back of the scrip. Every Wednesday the merchant with any of the scrip in his or her possession, will place a one cent stamp on the rear of the scrip indicating that the required tax has been paid. This tax is assessed merely to keep the scrip and money circulating more freely.

Prevent Fuse Fires Is Warning

Electric Fuses Are Safety Valve To Electric System Says Fire Chief

In his monthly safety bulletin on Fire Prevention, Fire Chief H. Clare Stockman, warns against the danger of fuse fires.

The fuse is an electrical installation which acts the same as the safety valve on a steam boiler, he states. Rendering the fuse inoperative is the same as tieing down the safety valve of a steam boiler, and so taking a chance with life and property.

The fuse is placed in an electrical circuit to prevent the overloading of the wires with excessive current. The fuse does not interfere with the service so long as the wires are free from defects and not overloaded. If for any reason a short circuit occurs, or the wires become overloaded with excess current, a piece of metal in the fuse melts, interrupting the current.

Both the wires and fuses are carefully rated as to the carrying capacity. If a fuse blows out, a fuse of the same size should be inserted, never a larger one. If this fuse does not hold, it either indicates an overload or some fault or defect in the wiring. Inserting a larger fuse does not correct the trouble, but increases it and removes the safety protection.

When a fuse of the proper size blows out repeatedly, it is time to call an electrician to locate and correct the trouble. An additional circuit may be needed to relieve an overload or faulty wiring may have to be overhauled.

Guard well this important safeguard to the use of electricity on your home or place of business. "FUSES ARE CHEAP, FIRES ARE COSTLY," is the concluding statement of the chief.

In his new location, Congressman Swick will have two rooms instead of one as at present. Filing cabinets and book cases in the new building are built into the walls. Everything is the last word in modern improvements.

To Secure Data For Budget Work

County Controller R. C. McCaslin Expects To File Report Monday

COMMISSIONERS WILL TRY TO CUT MILLAGE

Work of preparing the 1933 county budget has been delayed, according to the county commissioners, through their inability to secure from the county controller the data for last year, upon which the budget is to be based.

Controller R. C. McCaslin stated this morning that he expects to have the data for the commissioners this afternoon, although he will not be able to file his report for the past year until next Monday. Controller McCaslin, his deputy and two extra clerks have been at work compiling the data for several weeks.

Under the act governing the office of controller the report for the previous year is supposed to be filed on the first of February. The county commissioners then have until February 15 to make up their budget and set the millage for the ensuing year. On account of not getting the data earlier the commissioners say that it does not give them very much time to prepare their figures.

Just what is to be done with the millage will not be known until the commissioners go over the expenses of the past year. There are many items, such as interest on bonds and other fixed charges, that it will be impossible to scale down.

The commissioners have had in mind the scaling down of road and bridge work to the minimum, in the hope of effecting a saving. It is practically agreed that no work except that which will be absolutely necessary will be done during the coming year.

It is practically certain that there can be no reduction in the amount which is being levied for poor relief. The county is now almost without relief funds and the applications for relief are constantly increasing.

Showgirls Are More Domestic

Depression Has Hit Gay Times For Chorines And They Take Up Hobbies

LEARN TO COOK, SEW AND WRITE

By WILLIAM J. KELLY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 3.—Showgirls now confine their "shows" to the regular matinee and night performances, a survey by International News Service disclosed today.

They no longer "go places" after the show. And it's all caused by Ol' Man Depression.

Here are a few ways the stage beauties spend their spare time:

Embroidery work, literature, reading and composing poetry, backgammon, and washing their own stockings and handkerchiefs.

Take titian-haired Vemeta Vardon from Atlanta who utilized the idle moments in taking care of her pet dog. Miss Vardon says:

"Lady (the dog) takes up all my extra time. She demands her baths and daily walks and brushings. Can you think of a more foolish way to spend your time?"

Likes To Cook

And beautiful Peggy Osley with the Virginia drawl:

"Cook books are my weakness."

Blonde Mildred Borst writes poetry, Lois Eckhart embroiders and as for beautiful Paula Sands, well, Paula sees some humor in the situation. She says:

"My depression pastime is running around the park at 6 in the morning with a bottle of milk in one hand and a health magazine in the other."

Close Check Kept On New Residents

Through keeping a close check up of applicants for relief at the county poor department, the commissioners have been able to have a number of families, who had not been here long enough to gain a residence in Lawrence county, removed to the county from which they came. A case of this kind is being investigated today. The family came here from West Virginia, and it is believed will be sent back. There are some districts that are perfectly willing to move families into another county, if they can get rid of them that way. Where there is any doubt as to the eligibility of an applicant for aid, a thorough check up of his past residence is made.

TAKING TESTIMONY

Additional testimony is being taken before Judge James A. Chambers today in the case of J. Clyde Gilfillan and others against the Pennsylvania Engineering company, which has been before the court for some time.

Your sins find you out. You patronize a freak movie and make it a success, and then you must endure an epidemic like it

Bandit Confesses Killing Druggist At Pittsburgh, Pa.

Detective Inspector Says Alleged Confession Has Been Given To Police

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 3.—Detective Inspector Frank R. Boyd this afternoon declared an alleged confession had been obtained from Abe Liebman, 19, that he had fired the shot that killed Charles F. Huber, 66, in a drugstore holdup Wednesday night.

Boyd said the confession climaxed hours of questioning of Young Liebman and four other youths.

According to Boyd's version of Liebman's confession, the shot that killed Huber was fired while Liebman was struggling with another man who had grappled with him.

COLORED MINISTER GETS JAIL SENTENCE

(International News Service)

DETROIT—Because he felt his congregation needed spiritual counsel worse than the victim of his automobile needed physical aid, the Rev. P. D. Murray, colored minister is serving a 60 day term in jail.

He ran down Bert Johnson, a pedestrian. "When I hit him," Murray explained, "I was hurrying two preachers from Alabama to my church. He didn't look hurt, so I went on."

Johnson was unconscious four days, but recovered.

DOG'S LIFE FOUND TO BE ATTRACTIVE

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND—A "dog's life" can't be so bad after all.

Dogs impounded at the city kennels here were fed meat costing 11 cents a pound—once.

Market quotations for beef and pork roasts for human consumption range from 10 to 15 cents a pound.

Criticism of the 11-cent price was made in a formal report filed by the State Bureau of Examination of Public Office and the menu at the kennels was revised.

Three National Legion Leaders Seeking Honor

Three Men High In American Legion Circles Seek Secretary Of War Post

ENDORSEMENTS ARE GIVEN ROOSEVELT

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Three national leaders of the American Legion were waging a three-cornered race today for the post of secretary of war in the cabinet of President-elect Roosevelt.

They were: Monroe Johnson, of South Carolina, an overseas Colonel in the Rainbow Division; Past National Commander Henry L. Stevens, Jr., of North Carolina; and Past National Commander Ralph T. O'Neil of Kansas.

Commander Active

Johnson was the "official" candidate of the Legion, having been endorsed by National Commander Louis A. Johnson of West Virginia, and a number of other prominent officials in the present Legion administration. They have sent their endorsement direct to the president-elect.

The entire congressional delegation from South Carolina also endorsed Johnson. Senator Byrnes (D) of South Carolina, a close friend of the president-elect, admitted Johnson had this endorsement as well as that of current Legion officials.

Resume Clothing Distribution On Next Wednesday

Red Cross Will Curtail Number Of Days For Giving Out Clothing

It is expected that distribution of clothing from the stock of the Lawrence county chapter, American Red Cross, which is received from the National Red Cross, will be resumed on next Wednesday.

Until further notice clothing will only be given out during the mornings of Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, so that the workers may keep pace with their records.

A receipt is asked for each garment given out, which is placed in a file. Demand became so heavy for a time that it was impossible to keep the records straight, and it was necessary to suspend the distribution until the files could be straightened out.

No clothing will be given out on Monday and Tuesday in the future, in order to keep the records caught up.

BOMB FOR OLD CARS ASKED BY EDITOR

(International News Service)

AKRON, O.—"A time bomb ought to be attached to every automobile in America to blow it to pieces when it reaches the 30,000-mile mark."

William Rainey Bennett, Chicago editor and lecturer, suggests that solution for solving the depression.

In that way overproduction could be reduced, he says.

As another method Bennett told this city, noted for its rubber manufacturing, that it should cease manufacturing tires which will run for 30,000 miles.

UNUSUAL FRIENDSHIP

Because he felt he could no longer care for it as he wished, Clair Fegley, R. F. D., Orwigsburg, Pa., released an oppossum he had held in captivity for some time. Going out to investigate a noise that had awakened him some nights later, he found the oppossum had returned and it and the family cat were playing in the yard like two kittens.

Final Chapter In Massie Case Being Written In Hawaii

Plan To Free Four Natives Accused Of Attacking Mrs. Thalia Massie

(International News Service)

HONOLULU, T. H., Feb. 3.—The final chapter in the Massie attack case will be written here shortly, it was reported today.

The territorial authorities were reported to be ready to seek dismissal of indictments still pending against four natives who with Joseph Kahahawai were accused of having perpetrated a brutal attack on Mrs. Thalia Massie, wife of Lieutenant Thomas H. Massie, U. S. N.

Under the plan the charges against the four men would be nolle prossed.

Kahahawai and the four men still alive were tried more than a year ago and the jury disagreed after 97 hours deliberation. Shortly afterward Kahahawai was kidnaped from the courthouse steps and his body found in an automobile occupied by Mrs. Granville Fortescue, mother of Mrs. Massie, Lieutenant Massie and a naval enlisted man.

Lieutenant Massie, Mrs. Fortescue and two naval enlisted men were tried for the murder and found guilty after a long and sensational trial in which the veteran mainland attorney, Clarence Darrow, defended the four Americans. Later after serving sentences of one hour in the courtroom they were pardoned by Governor Lawrence Judd.

New System At Shenango School

In order that parents may know exactly what progress their children are making in school, Supervising Principal Glenn W. Johnston of the Shenango township schools has inaugurated a system of notification. At the end of the semester, which occurred last week, a notice was sent to the parents of each child that was not making the proper progress notifying them that their child was not showing progress and that unless marked improvement was shown in the current semester the youngster would be held in the same grade.

The notice is also a request that the parents do what they can to aid the pupil in generating a new interest in a school work towards the end that grades may be sufficiently improved to warrant promotion at the end of the school year.

Vicks Chemists Invite Tests of New Antiseptic

The makers of Vicks VapoRub have now produced an oral antiseptic. It is called Vicks Voratone Antiseptic. They urge every user of a mouth-wash and gargle—for halitosis (impure breath), oral cleanliness, and other uses—to test Vicks Antiseptic and get personally acquainted with its quality and its economy.

Born in a depression year, Vicks Antiseptic is priced accordingly. The regular size is a large 10-ounce bottle—a usual 75c value—for only 35c. For your testing, New Castle druggists are offering a special trial size. This is a 25c value, but is priced at only 10c—while the supply lasts.

ENGLISH COLLECTOR HAS RARE MINIATURES

(International News Service)

LONDON—A collector of "things no bigger than your hand" is the Marquess of Donegal, London journalist. The marquess finds a certain fascination in "small things", not just make-believe midget articles, but exact reproductions of their larger counterparts.

His Bible and New Testament, for instance, each about a square inch in size, are perfectly readable. A practical item of his collection is a watch three-quarters of an inch in diameter, which keeps perfect time and varies only six seconds a month. A fountain pen no longer than the cap of a mature pen, writes, while a miniature pack of cigarettes contains 100 smokes.

BANDIT RECOGNIZED BY OLD EMPLOYER

(International News Service)

Here's the secret of

A sunny disposition

LOOK around at your friends. Isn't it a fact that those who are happy and cheerful are folks who enjoy good health? The two go together.

Poor health reflects itself in your manner to other people. Too often, lack of personality can be traced to constipation. It may cause loss of appetite and energy. Yet it can be overcome by eating a delicious cereal.

Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regularity. The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. ALL-BRAN also contains twice as much blood-building iron as an equal weight of beef liver.

Special cooking, flavoring and krumbling processes make Kellogg's ALL-BRAN finer, softer, more palatable. You will find it far more pleasant to enjoy a cereal in place of taking patent medicines. So much wiser too.

Two tablespoonfuls daily of ALL-BRAN will overcome most types of constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor. At all grocers, in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

"When you're healthy, you're happy"

"How you feel — and how well you look — depends largely upon the food you eat. Be sure your diet is balanced — with sufficient 'bulk' to promote regularity."

Son Kills Bride Of Aged Father At Pittsburgh

Son Angered By Wedding Of Father To Young Bride Stages Fatal Shooting

POLICE HOLDING YOUTHFUL KILLER

Father Is Severely Beaten With Hammer; Celebration Ends Tragically

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 3.—Tragedy abruptly ended a "June-December" wedding celebration, leaving in its wake today the death of the 19-year-old bride. Serious injury of her 66-year-old husband and arrest of the latter's son, 22, as their assailant.

The victim was Mrs. John Coyne, Nee Irene Carbert, Pittsburgh girl. John Coyne, her husband of a few hours, was in a "fair" condition at Mercy Hospital, victim of several hammer blows. The girl was shot to death.

Slayer Is Held

Police held John Coyne, Jr., in jail as his step-mother's killer and his father's attacker. He was quoted as admitting the crimes.

The elder Coyne's wedding celebration was halted late yesterday, only a few hours after his marriage to Miss Carbert, when the son interrupted the festivities by shooting the girl to death. He beat his father when the latter attempted to protect his bride, police said.

Young Coyne came here by airplane from Detroit in an attempt to halt the wedding. He arrived too late. With his brother, Edward, John had gone to Detroit several days ago to confer with another brother, Anthony, on plans to prevent their father's marriage.

Authorities said the three brothers believed the girl was marrying their father merely to obtain his property.

Your Income Tax In A Nutshell

NO. 5
NORMAL TAX AND SURTAX RATES

The normal tax rate is 4 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the personal exemption, credit for dependents, etc.; and 8 per cent on the remainder of such excess amount. The surtax rates—in computing which many taxpayers make mistakes, usually to their own disadvantage—begin on net incomes in excess of $6,000. The rates increase in accordance with the amount of net income included in varying so-called income-tax brackets. On a net income of $6,000 or less there is no surtax. On a net income in excess of $6,000 and not in excess of $10,000 the rate is 1 per cent of such excess. The surtax upon a net income of $10,000 is $40 and upon a net income in excess of $10,000, and not in excess of $12,000, the rate is 2 per cent in addition of such excess. The surtax on a net income of $1,000,000 is $491,460, and upon a net income in excess of $1,000,000, in addition 55 per cent of such excess, the maximum rate. Many taxpayers make the error of applying the maximum rate instead of the rate provided for in the bracket in which their net income is included.

Following is an example of how to compute the tax on a net income of $14,500, the taxpayer being single and without dependents:

Net income	$14,500
Less personal exemption	1,000
Balance taxable	13,500
4 per cent normal tax on first $4,000	160
8 per cent normal tax on balance of $9,500	760
Surtax of 3140 on $14,000, plus 4 per cent on $500 in excess of that amount	160
Total, normal tax and surtax	1,080

The earned-income credit allowed individuals under the revenue act of 1928 is entirely omitted from the revenue act of 1932. Therefore, no earned-income credit may be taken for the calendar year 1932 or succeeding taxable years. Taxpayers are advised to read carefully the instructions on Form 1040 relating to the surtax, as well as all instructions thereon, before preparing their returns.

Cole Endorses "Buy American" Sales Movement

Believes That Like Every Good Movement That It Should Start At Home

Merchants as a whole are in favor of the "Buy American" movement sponsored by the American Legion, although they perhaps realize the difficulties attendant to the success of the movement, more than the average person. They realize that it is a movement that must begin right at home in each of the thousands of villages, towns and cities and scattered communities of the entire country and that once the individual realizes its importance, then it must go forward to success.

DeLace Cole, general manager of the New Castle Branch of the W. J. Offutt Company, with many years experience in merchandising, today expresses his belief in the "Buy American" movement and in that connection voices the very apt sentiment that it must begin at home.

Speaking of the movement today he said, "The Buy American movement is a move in the right direction, although I must admit that it is almost impossible to make it a one hundred percent movement.

"The more effective that it is made now, the sooner it will result in putting more American workmen back to work.

"Charity begins at home and hand in hand with "Buy American" should go the movement for "Buy In New Castle." Both will mean more people put back to work in New Castle as well in the United States."

With the local merchants willing to co-operate to the fullest possible extent, the people of New Castle should see to it that their needs in every line possible are supplied with "American Goods made by American workmen."

DOCTORS FIND MAN'S HEART ON WRONG SIDE

(International News Service)

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Feb. 3.—For years Richard O'Neil, 72, of Homestead, heard fellow-workers and friends say "You're heart is in the right place" without any doubt.

But now he knows they were wrong because his heart isn't. It's on the right side of his body—what is known in medical circles as a dextra caria condition.

A physician, treating O'Neil for a cold, made the discovery. The heart was found on the right side in the same position it rests on the left side of normal persons.

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore.—Pretty Miss Lenora Johnson, 23 year old "two-gun" school ma'am, who chased a gang of drunken Piute braves from her Indian reservation schoolhouse with a brace of roaring automatics holds no ill will against the redskins.

"I do not blame the Indians" she commented after the shooting affray in which one buck was shot three times in the legs. "I blame the white man's rotten whiskey. They were no worse than a white man would have been had the white man been drunk. All men are alike when they are intoxicated."

Pinchot Hits Tax Gathering System In State

Governor Asserts Present Pyramid System Is Burden To Citizens

FINDS NO NEED FOR MANY COLLECTORS

HARRISBURG, Feb. 3.—Governor Pinchot today declared that a young army of men and women is feeding unnecessarily at that section of the public crib devoted to the collection of taxes.

"I have nothing against the individual tax collector. All I object to is the extra and unnecessary burden on the taxpayer. Three-quarters of it is pure waste," the governor said.

"I think the total number of tax collectors runs close to the 5000-mark. Elected tax collectors, including collectors of delinquent taxes, total 2594. The number of appointed collectors is 416. To that total must be added hundreds of employes and deputies. In Philadelphia, for instance, the bureau of delinquent taxes in the office of Receiver of Taxes employs about seventy people. Attached to that bureau are forty-three delinquent collectors, each assigned to a definite territory.

"In its search for ways of reducing local taxes the State Legislature should not overlook the opportunity to lop off the useless and needless excess cost in the business of tax collection.

"As I said in my legislative message of January 3, these collectors extract extravagant sums from the people. As taxes filter through, the law permits five to six per cent, to stick to their fingers, just as the gold ducats stuck to the pitch covered measure used by Ali Baba.

Just "Bob Up"

"Tax collectors bob up everywhere and all the time. They include first and second class township collectors, borough collectors, the receiver of taxes in Philadelphia, the city treasurer in Pittsburgh, the tax collector in Scranton, tax collectors in third class cities, county tax collectors, school and poor tax collectors. And then there are the delinquent tax collectors.

"This work can and should be done non-political and economical methods for one per cent., or less, and at a cost that would save our people about five million dolars a year. It can and should be done by fewer people. It is done that way in Ohio, just across the line.

A dollar paid to an unnecessary official, or an unnecessary dollar paid to an official, is just as hard to raise and pay as a dollar that actually goes for roads or schools or support of the poor."

Jesus Chooses The Twelve

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

John 15:16—"I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit."

(The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson on the above topic for Feb. 5 is Mark 3:7-35, the Golden Text being John 15:16, "I chose you and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit.")

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

The shadow of the cross was emerging more and more clearly out of the increasing opposition Jesus saw gathering before him. It was this that moved him to select twelve of his disciples who might be specially trained to carry on his work after his crucifixion.

The year of obscurity, passed largely in Judaea, has now swung into the year of popularity, spent largely in Galilee, and Jesus begins to prepare for the year of opposition which will culminate in the cross. His popularity in Galilee is evidenced by increasing crowds not only from Galilee but from Judaea, Idumaea and even from the coast cities of Tyre and Sidon. So pronounced is this wave of popularity that we read of the multitudes "pressing upon" and "thronging him" until "they could not so much as eat bread".

The Choosing of the Twelve.

Luke tells us how Jesus escaped from the crowds at this time and "went out into the mountain to pray; and he continued all night in prayer to God. And when it was day, he called his disciples: and he chose from them, twelve, whom also he named apostles."

Mark adds the significant note indicating our Lord's purpose in this appointment: "He appointed twelve, that they might be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach." The order of events here is vitally important. Jesus first communed with God in prayer through the night; then he came to men and made his choice from them. For those he chooses he prescribes the same order. They are to "be with him that he might send them forth." Experience must precede expression. Communion must beget conquest. Christ's order is always: "Come and see" than "Go and tell." We defeat ourselves when we set out upon his work without first equipping ourselves for it by communion with him.

The Making of the Twelve.

When Jesus chose the twelve he challenged them to high achievement with the promise, "Follow me and I will make you to become." He truly made them to become all they did become. He found them unknown, he made them well known. He found them poor, he made them enrichers of all subsequent ages. He found them ordinary men; he made them extraordinary men. He inspired them to become crusaders for a kingdom of spiritual ideals so perfect as to perpetually challenge its subjects to their best. As they continued to invest themselves in his objectives he made them new creatures in his spirit. He will do the same in any who will follow him and his eternally fascinating ideals.

Kinship With Jesus.

So zealously did he give himself in his passion to bless humanity with the healing touch of his helping hand that his own family and friends said: "He is beside himself." And they sought to restrain his enthusiasm. It was this that elicited from our Lord that statement which teaches us the strength of the ties that bind those who have spiritual kinship with him through faith. We emphasize the ties of blood by saying, "Blood is thicker than water." But Jesus put the ties of faith above those of blood, when, pointing to his disciples, he said, "Behold my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother and sister and mother."

County Poor Fund About Exhausted

Must Borrow To Tide Over Situation Until New Taxes Begin To Come In

With only about $8000 remaining in the poor fund, it will be but a matter of a short time until the county commissioners are going to be in the dilemma of old Mother Hubbard, when she went to the cupboard to get her poor dog a bone.

If the bills were all in now the shelves would be bare. The only recourse for the commissioners will be to borrow until the 1933 taxes begin to come in. The money which the county now spends goes largely to drugs, funerals, hospitals, and shoes. The shoe bill, which has been quite large, will be taken off soon, as an allotment of shoes has been secured from the state.

The state is also furnishing money for the food and milk orders, but the county has considerable expense in the distribution line. Were it not for the help which is now being secured through the state fund, the county would be facing a very critical situation.

As it is the outlook is anything but promising. There is a large amount of uncollected taxes on the books, both for 1932 and for previous years. There does not appear to be much chance of getting this tax money until property owners get work.

Essay Receives Favorable Comment

Under the auspices of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania, an essay contest was recently put on in which public health nurses of the state were asked to compete. The subject used in the essay contest was "The Function of the Public Health Nurse in Cancer Control".

Among the many entrants from all over the state was Mrs. Blance Smith of New Castle and while her essay did not win the prize offered, it was favorably commented upon by the judges.

Taxes Levied For 1932 Must Stand

Farmers Can't Get Reductions Until The New Tri-ennial Assessment Is Made

Many farmers have visited the county commissioners office during the past few weeks requesting that their taxes be reduced. The visitors invariably complain that their assessments are too high, and that with the low prices of milk and produce they have been unable to get enough ready cash to pay their taxes.

A Slippery Rock township farmer who was at the commissioners office this morning claimed that he had only sold $110 worth of milk all year and that his taxes amount to $115. He said that he had economized in every way, but could not get the cash with which to pay. His only hope, he said, was to sell some of his cows, but the prices offered were so ridiculously low that he did not feel like parting with them.

He was told that the county commissioners cannot do anything toward reducing valuations until the next tri-ennial assessment. Taxes must be paid this year on the present valuations. The county tax, he was informed, is but a small part of the whole, and the matter should be taken up with the township assessor. Even the township assessor cannot do anything with this years taxes.

PLAN GARDEN TO GROW VEGETABLES FOR YEAR

Thousands of visitors at the recent state farm show in Harrisburg were impressed by the economic value of the family vegetable garden as presented in the education exhibit of the Pennsylvania State college extension service.

Penn State Ball Head cabbage, grown and stored on the college farm, was an example of how well it pays to select the best varieties and to store the surplus for winter use.

Actual harvesting and storing periods for each vegetable were shown graphically on a large colored chart. With proper selection of varieties and successive plantings, vegetables may be harvested fresh from the garden from early May to November. Raw vegetables then may be stored in a barrel pit, or other suitable place, until the following May. The surplus may be canned for use during the entire year.

Better provision of vegetable foods for the family may be had this year following a well prepared plan. Select a site on fertile soil conveniently located but not infected with disease. Manure applied liberally this winter will become well rotted by planting time and will greatly improve the soil.

One-quarter to one-half acre will be sufficient for the average farm family. Planting in long rows will not only save much labor, by allowing horse or wheel-hoe cultivation, but will make it easier to provide a succession of crops.

WELL-BRED CHICKS GROW INTO BEST LAYERS

Good breeding pays and one Pennsylvania poultryman has figures to prove this point.

In the spring of 1931 this poultryman picked hens for two breeding pens from the cream of about 1000 birds. These hens were selected for size vigor and egg production. They were birds that did not molt before late October or early November. One cockerel was used in each of the two breeding pens. Cockerel 1 was a pedigreed bird bought from a White Leghorn breeder in Pennsylvania. The cockerel in pen No. 2 was a fine looking bird but of unknown breeding.

The chicks from these two matings were marked to distinguish them apart and then they were brooded and raised together. In the fall of the year the pullets were housed together on the second floor of a three-story laying house. Twenty-one birds from each of the two breeding pens were trapnested 100 days, from November 1, 1931 to February 8, 1932.

Group 1, tracing back to the pedigreed cockerel, laid 1,424 eggs in this period, compared with group 2, sired by the bird of unknown breeding, which produced 1,065 eggs. Not only were 350 more eggs received from group 1 but they were larger and of better color.

Since the cost of the chick is only a drop in the bucket of total production costs, it is profitable to check up on the source of chicks to make sure the parent stock is bred for high egg production as well as large egg size.

PRUNE GRAPES TO GET THE BEST PRODUCTION

In pruning grapes, which method should be used, the spur or long cane?

Both methods are used in Lawrence county. In the spur method of pruning the vines are cut back severely, leaving only two or three potential fruit buds. The long cane method is characterized by canes having 8 to 12 buds after the pruning is completed.

Personal preference is second in importance to productive possibilities, and should be so considered by the grower. Experimental evidence shows that the basal bud on the one-year-old wood seldom produces fruit, and also that the production of grapes increases from the second to the sixth or seventh bud. Then the production decreases gradually until the 12th bud is reached.

With this knowledge of grape vine production, growers should prune their vines by the long cane method. In this way the largest number of productive buds are retained. To secure the greatest production, vines should be pruned to canes carrying 8 to 12 buds each. The canes selected should be those that previous to pruning were six to eight feet long. This will result in stronger buds and the elimination of the so-called 'bull' canes.

PLAN AHEAD FOR WORK IN THE FLOWER GARDEN

February is the month for planning ahead. In preparation for the coming planting season many chores can be done.

Catalogs can be marked, estimates obtained on garden tools, seeds and plants, and literature on flower gardening read.

Manure can be spread over the soil that is to be prepared for the flower garden. Sifted coal ashes also can be spread over the garden to assist in lightening the heavy soil.

This month also affords time for removing all dead branches from shrubbery. Where branches are too thick or too tall these likewise can be removed. Many shrubs, however, should not be pruned until spring. These inculde Barberry, Stanhlea, Bladder-senna, Coralberry, Snowberry, Bushalthea, Ornamental Fruited Honeysuckle, False-indigo, Hydrangea, Summer Blooming Spireae, fruit varieties of Viburnums, Matrimony Vine and the following roses: Teas, Hybrid Teas, Hybrid Perpetuals and Baby Ramblers.

If snow rests heavily on evergreens and small specimen trees, it can be removed readily by using a heavy broom or brush to shake the evergreens and trees. This will prevent the injury sometimes incurred when a heavy stick or pole is used.

Picked Committee Is Struggling With Economic Problems

Committee Recently Appointed By Dr. Nicholas Butler Is Hard At Work

Suggestions For Ending Situation Received At Rate Of Twenty Per Day

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The "committee of eighteen" at Columbia University which has undertaken an exhaustive study of the economic situation is taking hold of its task in a spirit of hopefulness although admitting some aspects of the problem as "difficult to explore."

"Counsels of despair are out of place," Professor Robert M. MacIver, chairman of the commission, declared today. He revealed, incidentally, that since the formation of the committee he has been receiving letters at the rate of twenty a day giving ideas and plans for curing the depression.

Committee At Work.

The "committee of eighteen" was appointed recently by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia. The commission was formed shortly after the Technocrats, who had been meeting at Columbia University, split into two factions. The eighteen members of the commission include seven from Columbia, four from other universities and seven from social and business organizations.

"It is true there are various aspects of the situation which are very difficult to explore," Professor MacIver told International News Service today.

"We do not know how far, if at all, the volume of unemployment is directly affected by technological advance, we do not know whether there really is any serious disproportion between the funds which are made available as consumers' credit and those which are devoted to further production.

"We do not know when, how, or perhaps even whether, the upturn would begin if left to the play of uncontrolled economic forces. Undoubtedly there are many things which remain in darkness, and about which we can only guess.

Policies Guided.

"But we do know enough to guide our policies in many respects. We do know the course of events which precipitated the crisis of 1929 and the cumulative factors which have deepened the depression.

"We do understand how in our close-knit interdependence falling demand and falling price set in motion a downward spiral. We do know the inequalities of the process of liquidation as it bears on more resistant and less resistant price factors, so that some groups and some industries are plunged into greater distress than others and so that the total national indebtedness becomes more and more disproportionate to the total national income.

Seek Main Causes

"We know also that the main causes of the depression are not to be found in the peculiar conditions of the United States or of any other country, but in those which are either found alike in all or which link each to all. Those who maintain a contrary view must believe in a coincidence so extraordinary as to pass the bounds of reason.

"Our task then is to see first the interaction of the forces which are at work. Otherwise we shall mistake symptoms for causes and palliatives for remedies."

Total exports for the year were valued at a $1,612,305,000, a decrease of $812,000,000 from 1931, while imports valued at $1,322,745,000 were $768,000,000 lower.

People

Chesterfields are Milder

WHEN you ask a Chesterfield smoker why that's his brand—he generally comes right out flat-footed and says..."It's because They're Milder!"

So we're going to keep right on doing everything we know how to keep them that way.

That's why we look for and buy the mildest and ripest tobaccos we can get. That's why we age them in our warehouses till they're mellow and sweet.

We believe that even the shredding of the tobacco...and the quality of the paper it's rolled in, have a lot to do with the even-drawing, mild smoke that people enjoy in Chesterfields.

You can bank on this...every method known to science is used to make Chesterfield a milder, better-tasting cigarette that satisfies.

Senior High School News

Grads Return, Take Up Work As If Graduation Never Came Last Week

The June class stepped up this week to take the place of the graduated January class, but found the place rather crowded. Nearly all the members of the January class are so infatuated with their dear old Alma Mater that they "just couldn't say goodby."

What would Franklin D. Roosevelt say if Herbert Hoover kept taking his meals at the White House after March 4th? Well, that's just the dilemma that the president of the new crop of Senior A's is in. Everytime he strides down a corridor he bumps into the president of the graduated class. Yes they're all P. G.'s (Playful Goofs) now, with their diplomas dangling from their pockets. We wonder if the graduates think that commencement exercises merely celebrate the commencement of post graduate courses? The Senior A's are able to handle the post graduates, but imagine the situation of the sophomores!

NEW SENIOR OFFICERS

However, the new Senior A class, with Rex Rowland as its president, John Stump as vice president, Frank Babiarz as treasurer, and Evelyn Brandt as secretary, is all prepared to uphold and carry on the tradition of the school. The supervisor of the class is Miss Clara Elliot.

The cabinet, composed of the four above named officers and the supervisor, had a meeting last Tuesday wherein the problems of the class were discussed and a class meeting was decided upon for the near future. A social event of some kind has been planned, but its nature has not yet been divulged.

DR. ALLEY IN CHAPEL

The problems in Democracy students, on Monday morning, January 30, had the privilege of listening to a fine address on the subject of world peace given by Dr. Alden G. Alley, Newark, N. J., college professor. Dr. Alley who has been present at World Peace conferences for the last ten years explained to the students how these varies courts function and wherein them lies the great value to the American people.

GIVEN RECOGNITION

At the end of each semester the Latin students who have just completed a year of Caesar, Cicero, or Vergil are given an opportunity to prove their ability and to find out exact standing of each member of the class in his knowledge of Latin forms, syntax, vocabulary, and translation.

Each class is given a series of tests and the pupils who make the highest scores in each group are given membership in Senatus Romanus. The student who is brilliant enough to win first place in the Vergil class is presented with a ten-dollars gold piece by the Lawrence County Bar association on the evening of commencement.

After carefully checking each paper the Latin teachers have awarded honors for this semester's tests to the following students:

IV honors: Summa—William Kelley; Magna—Sara McKee; Cum Laude—Robert Aiken, Gertrude Graham.

IIIA honors: Summa—Gertrude Shaffer; Magna—Heber Baldwin; Cum Laude—Marian Bergland, Dorothy Price.

IIA honors: Summa—Dorothy Shiting; Magna—Bertha Boya; Cum Laude—Virginia Cook, Edith Cowden, Ilse Sonneborn, Ruth Lintz, Joel Levin, Mary Miller, John Thomas, Alma Broadbent, Ralph Davies.

Those pupils deserving honorable mention for their excellent work are: Elizabeth Eaken and James Fuller.

MAKE FACULTY CHANGE

Twice a year Minerva has the opportunity of seeing new faces among the students, but seldom does she see new faces among the faculty. This semester we have the pleasure of welcoming among our instructors Miss Clara Tranquillo, who is taking the place of Miss Florence Shapo, and J. W. Anderson, who replaces Miss Bertha Offerdinger.

WELCOME BUSY HOST

The students of the Senior high school have a great cause for rejoicing. We have had a new addition to our large and happy family. This family is getting so large, unfortunately, that the father of the family is threatening the lazy ones with expulsion. There is no room now for anyone except those who care to work and do.

If the depression continues and the graduates return to the school because of unemployment our school will be turning out one hundred per cent efficient girls and boys to take up their battle with life.

The sophomore A's are glad to be replaced by a newer group to bear the brunt of the mischief of upper classmen. The older students welcome a diversion in the daily routine. For a few days it becomes their duty to direct the unsuspecting newcomers. We must sell them chapel seats and elevator passes. We direct them to the library which is in the basement, to the cafeteria which is on the second floor, and the swimming pool and gym which are on the third floor.

HUGE SENIOR CLASS

There are 281 members in the present senior A class. It is believed that this class will display as much, if not more, originality and efficiency in its various projects as the class that has just been graduated. According to Miss Marjorie Rhodes, assistant principal of the school, this new group of senior A's contains a great number of students who are willing to devote their unstinted efforts to the work of the class.

Taking all in all, the depression is bringing out to a greater degree than ever before the executive and administrative abilities of the students in the balancing of the class budget and in the management of class affairs.

If Your Ears Ring With Head Noises

People who are growing hard of hearing and who experience a stuffy feeling of pressure against their ear drums, accompanied by buzzing, rumbling sounds in the head like water falling or steam escaping, should take prompt and effective measures to stop this trouble.

Secure from Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc. or your druggist 1 oz. Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home and add 1-4 pint hot water and a little sugar.

One tablespoonful four times a day should quickly relieve distressing catarrhal head noises, open clogged nostrils, make breathing easy, stop annoying mucous discharge. All catarrh sufferers should give Parmint a trial.

PILES

Go Quick—No Cutting—No Salves

If you think a surgical operation is the only way to get rid of itching, bleeding or protruding Piles, it's because you haven't heard of the harmless internal medicine discovered by a prominent western physician.

After years of study, Dr. J. S. Leonhardt found the cause of Piles to be internal—congestion of blood in the lower bowel—the hemorrhoidal veins flabby; the bowel walls weak; the parts almost dead. Right away the doctor set to work to find a real internal remedy. He succeeded, and after prescribing it for 1000 patients, with success in over 900 cases, he named his prescription HEM-ROID.

The doctor wants every Pile sufferer to benefit by his discovery, and so there will be no doubting or delay Eckerd's Cut Rate & New Castle Drug Co. and druggists everywhere are authorized to sell HEM-ROID with guarantee of money-back if it does not end Piles in any form.

So why waste time on external treatments or think of an operation when HEM-ROID tablets are guaranteed.

Gangsters Stage Fight On Street

Chicago Gunmen Seriously Wounded, Machine Guns Are Used

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Feb. 3—The turbulent war for control of the west suburban liquor trade was responsible police agreed today, for a violent machine gun battle fought by two automobile loads of gangsters at a busy streeet intersection. One gangster wore a woman's garb as a disquise.

One of the gunmen who opened fire on an armored brougham as it passed the intersection was seriously wounded, but he and his two companions escaped by commandeering a passing automobile after abandoning their bullet-pierced car. The man at the wheel of the armorplated vehicle wore a woman's fur coat and plumed hat, witnesses reported.

Police began a search for Tom Touhy, one of the Touhy brothers who are seeking control of the beer business in the suburbs. Witnesses said he was in one of the automobiles.

Thank goodness! When the last taxpayer's last dollar is gone, Congress will have to think up some other plan of salvation.

THAT UPSET MORNING FEELING YOU HAVE

Nine Chances in Ten It's "Acid Stomach"

How You Can Easily Correct It

According to many authorities, some 80% of the people of today have acid stomach. This because so many foods, comprising the modern diet, are acid forming foods.

It usually makes itself felt in sour stomach, indigestion, headaches, nausea, "gas," "biliousness," and most frequently in stomach pains that come about thirty minutes after eating. So you can easily tell if you have it.

Now Quickly and Easily Corrected

If you do have acid stomach, don't worry about it. You can correct it in a very simple manner. Just do this. It will alkalize your acid soaked stomach almost immediately. You will feel like another person.

TAKE—2 teaspoonfuls of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia with a glass of water every morning when you get up. Take another teaspoonful thirty minutes after eating. And another before you go to bed.

What This Does

That's all you do. But you do it regularly, EVERY DAY, so long as you have any symptoms of distress.

This acts to neutralize the stomach acids that foster your "upset" stomach, that invite headaches and that feeling of lassitude and lost energy.

Try it. Results will amaze you. Your head will be clear. You'll forget you have a stomach.

BUT—be careful that you get REAL milk of magnesia when you buy; genuine PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia. See that the name "Phillips" is stamped clearly on the label.

ALSO IN TABLET FORM:

Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets are now on sale at drug stores everywhere. Each tiny tablet is the equivalent of a teaspoonful of Genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Neutralizes Food and Tobacco Acids a few minutes after taking.

AMBASSADOR LINDSAY TO BRING U. S. MESSAGE

Great Britain Seeks Debt Cut

Conference Is Arranged By British Leaders With Sir Ronald Monday

AMBASSADOR TO BE SENT BACK SOON

By HARRY K. REYNOLDS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Feb. 3.—With Great Britain holding out for payment of the war debt to the United States on the basis of 10 cents on the dollar, Ambassador Sir Ronald Lindsay will return to the United States as soon as possible with "an important message for President-elect Roosevelt," International News Service learned today.

Formation of a cabinet committee to deal with the war debt problem, exclusively revealed by International News Service on Tuesday, comprises the latest British effort to create a high-geared executive machine which will act in the most decisive manner possible, it was learned.

To Have Conference.

The committee, consisting of Prime Minister MacDonald, Foreign Minister Sir John Simon, Stanley Baldwin, Chancellor of the Exchequer Chamberlain and Walter Runciman, president of the Board of Trade, will consult with Sir Ronald after he arrives here Monday.

The committee will report to the entire cabinet, conveying the views Sir Ronald obtained in his conversations at Warm Springs with President-elect Roosevelt.

Then, cutting diplomatic red tape, the government will send the ambassador back to the United States as soon as possible, and it is believed he will have another conference with Roosevelt, at which he will convey a message direct from the British government.

It was learned the government will inform the United States that only an agreement meeting the terms of the Lausanne settlement can be reached, and that under the terms of the Lausanne pact Britain can make no more war debt payments to the United States in accordance with the present debt arrangement, except by inviting "disaster" to all Europe.

Coal Industry Fights Against Increased Rates

Proposed Increase Of Thirty Cents Per Ton On Rates Bitterly Opposed

COAL MEN SUFFER HEAVY LOSSES

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Feb. 3—The proposed 30 per cent ton increase in freight rates on lake cargo bituminous coal are "inopportune and harmful to the coal industry in this commonwealth," the Pennsylvania Public Service Commission advised in a petition before the interstate Commerce Commission today.

The commission asked that the petition filed by railroads seeking vacation or modification of the Interstate Commerce Commission's order of May 9, 1927 be denied.

The railroads, Baltimore and Ohio Bessemer and Lake Erie, Cumberland and Pennsylvania, Erie, Monongahela, New York Central, Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh and Lake Erie, Pittsburgh and West Virginia, and the Western Maryland, proposed an increase of 30 cents per ton in freight rates on lake cargo coal to Lake Erie ports when consigned to destinations along the Great Lakes east of the straits of Mackinac and west of Brockville, Ontario, Canada.

Pennsylvania Interested

"Pennsylvania is vitally interested in the bituminous coal traffic to the Great Lakes," said Dr. Clyde L. King, chairman of the Pennsylvania commission. "This traffic amounts to from 7,000,000 to 10,000,000 tons annually. If granted, the proposed rate increase will divert some of this tonnage from Pennsylvania coal fields to other producing areas to the great detriment of the Pennsylvania industry."

The Public Service Commission further asserted that "the coal industry in Pennsylvania has suffered material loss since the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad reduced its rates from mines in Ohio to destinations in that state and like reductions were not made from mines in Pennsylvania to the same destination."

A committee of twelve was selected to confer with the School Board on the subject of a lower rate of millage for the fiscal year of 1933-34. The meeting was adjourned to meet the first Thursday in March at eight p. m. in the Union High school auditorium.

TRUCK GETS REPAIRS

Mahoningtown had no fire truck for a few hours Thursday afternoon. The truck was undergoing repairs at the city mechanics shop and the local department was without a vehicle and equipment. However if a call had come in a truck would have been sent down from Central.

The repairs were minor, such as straightening the front fenders. The damage was made several weeks ago when the truck crashed into the local theater building trying to avoid hitting a car at the intersection.

Fail To Locate Bandit Killers At Pittsburgh

Police Running Down All Available Clues In Death Of Druggist

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 3.— With every clue leading to a blank wall, detectives today struck a snag in their attempts to solve the slaying of Charles Huber, Pittsburgh druggist who was shot down in his store Wednesday night by two "ice cream soda" bandits during a holdup.

Fingerprints obtained from a jigsaw puzzle box which the gunmen dropped as they fled from the store proved to be so badly blurred that they could not be identified, police said. A man who was questioned briefly yesterday afternoon could give detectives no information about the identity of the killers.

Huber, formerly from Franklin, Pa., died from bullet wounds in the chest and shoulder inflicted during a gun battle with the robbers who attempted to holdup his son after ordering ice cream sodas.

SENATE PROBES LOUISIANA FEUD

The senate will investigate the bitter political feud between Louisiana's two Democratic senators, Huey Long and Edwin S. Broussard, who are not even on speaking terms. A senate committee will conduct an inquiry into the Louisiana state primary which resulted in Senator Broussard's defeat by former Congressman John S. Overton, one of Senator Long's aides. Broussard charges that corruption and bribery occurred in Overton's campaign which was led by Long. Senator Robert B. Howell of Nebraska heads the senatorial investigation in New Orleans.

New Member Of State Legislature Gives First Impressions

(Editor's Note: Hiram G. Andrews of Johnstown, newspaper editor, former legislative correspondent, and now the lone assemblyman of the Independent Citizens party, casts a debunking eye upon the Pennsylvania legislature for International News Service today and reveals what a member thinks, and is thought about, during his first term.—I. N. S.)

By REP. HIRAM G. ANDREWS
Floor Leader of the Independent Citizens Party.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 3.—The editor of I. N. S. blandly suggests "500 words on the impressions of a new member of the legislature and what the new member thinks about".

The editor is gracious in his presumption that new members think. The popular impression tends to run in a different direction. If the new member is candid, and if he is a typical instance, he will admit he is mentally confused, disillusioned and is suffering slightly from punctured vanity.

Years ago, it was my good fortune to serve at Harrisburg as a member of the newspaper gallery. As a working newspaper man new members were of small consequence to me. They were actually the least important human atoms on the hill. As a member of the legislature, I find that times have not changed. New members are still relatively unimportant.

The average new member, particularly of the house, sweeps down upon Harrisburg at the opening of the session with a lot of bright ideas in his head or in his bright new brief case. He rather expects a welcome—if not for himself at least for his bright ideas.

He finds, however, that the old members—who are the boys who run the show—have bright ideas of their own. Their response to the enthusiasm of the newcomer is, perhaps, a yawn, or the statement that they sponsored pretty much the same idea back in 1923.

Perhaps the only logical excuse for a new member of the legislature is the fact new members are the raw material out of which old members are made.

The new member finds he is not a factor in the organization of the house and not being a factor in the organization he has mighty small chance of getting a legislative leg up later on. It is not that the old members are unkind. As social beings they are gracious and kindly. And the "old timers" will help a newcomer—if they can put more shingles on their own roof than they do on the other fellow's roof by so doing.

The legislature is a place of two thousand pink bills, some of them a hundred pages, or more, long. What are they all about? Which are the good ones? Which the bad ones that harbor snakes? It's a large contract to determine those points on the basis of personal investigation.

What does the new member do? Eventually he takes his legislation on faith—faith in a group, a party, a faction, or in some individual who has managed to establish himself as one who "is in on the know."

The average new member finds his liberties—and his accomplishments—curtailed by his fear of making a mistake. He comes to envy the senators, who can apparently make all the mistakes they want to without ever being wrong.

The new member of the legislature who studies both branches of the general assembly has not been long in Harrisburg before he inclines to the belief that as far as power is concerned he would probably be making a good bargain if he could trade the whole house for four senators. Later on, he may be willing to trade the house for three senators.

What are the impressions of a new members? Many, many years ago there was a railroad wreck at Chatsworth, Ill., near where I lived when a boy. The wreck broke all previous records for railroad fatalities. Hundreds of Chicago people were involved in the crash. Many of them pinned in blazing cars.

The only "newspaper" man on the scene was the local correspondent who sent baseball scores to the Chicago papers. In response to frantic telegrams from his editors this young man sent the following historic telegram:

"All is confusion here. Can ascertain nothing."

And that, if he told all the truth, is the message the new member of the legislature would send to his anxious and expectant home folks.

Accuser and Accused

Lured to Washington, D. C., from her home in Roanoke, Va., by a promise of marriage, according to her story, Miss Dorothy Pollard (above), expectant mother, was forced to live a life of shame until she charged Homer Shropshire (inset) with being the cause of her downfall. Shropshire, against whom similar accusations have been made by other girls, is held on a charge of violating the Mann Act.

Promise Cooperation In Movement Spreading Over Country

Members of the Henry L. McBride Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, endorsed the "Buy American" movement which is spreading over the country, at their meeting Wednesday evening in the Legion Home Association Building.

A complete report was submitted by the Toy Committee in which it was stated that while a great number of children were taken care of this year, all the demands could not be supplied because of a lack of toys.

Plans are progressing for the big card party which will be held on March 29.

A committee consisting of T. John Stoner, Ray Smith and George Christoph was appointed to make arrangements for the annual Mother's Day banquet.

The annual V. F. W. Radio Hour, which will be broadcast over a nation-wide hookup on the night of February 11, has been changed from 11 to 11:30, the Post was informed. Plans have been made to hold a group reception the same as last year.

Service Officer Orville Potter gave a talk on Veterans Affairs explaining more fully some of the provisions as outlined in the recent article on veterans affairs in the paper.

Preperations for the entertainment of the Tri-County Council here on Wednesday evening, February 9 are complete, the post was informed.

Letters are being mailed to the Armistice Day committee who will hold a meeting in the near future, when the committee will get organized and plans started for the annual Tri-County Armistice Day celebration to be held here next November 11.

Says Jobs Given To Residents Of 2 Other Counties

Lawrence County Man Complains To County Commissioners Of Wurtemburg Jobs

According to a complaint made by a workman to the county commissioners today, the contractor on the two Wurtemburg bridges is giving more work to Butler and Beaver county men than to Lawrence county men. This man had been employed on one of the bridges and had been laid off. When he went back to ask for work he was told of a somewhat similar job in Beaver county. When he went to the contractor in charge of the Beaver county job he was asked if he was a resident of Beaver county and if he had a Beaver county tax receipt. When he said that he was from Lawrence county he failed to get the job. While the commissioners have no jurisdiction over whom the contractor on the Wurtemburg bridges hires, as it is a state job, they believe that Lawrence county men should be given the preference, the same as is done by the Beaver county contractor.

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 3.—On the complaint of Henry J. Goss, certified motor truck operator, John A. Elluinger of Zelienople admitted transporting dairy and farm products from Beaver, Butler and Allegheny counties to Pittsburgh without a certificate at a public service commission hearing here today.

Elluinger asked the commission to issue him a certificate of public convenience to continue the operations which are "absolutely necessary". The proposed route outlined in his application extends through the townships of Ross, McCandless, Franklin, Marshall and Pine, Allegheny county; Cranberry, Adams, Jackson and Forward, Butler county; New Sewickley, Marion, Franklin and North Sewickley, Beaver county.

Although three other motor truck operators are licensed to transport milk and farm products from points along the route to Pittsburgh, approximately a score of farmers and milk dealers supported Elluinger's contention that his proposed service is esesntial.

New Castle And Rochester Play Here Tonight

First Game In Second Half Of Sectional Race

New Castle High Hopes To Get Started On Winning Streak In Section Three

Johnny Uram Missing, Battley Or Kelly Will Take Up Forward Berth

New Castle High school basketball team, deadlocked with Butler High for honors in the first half of the Section Three race will return to the wars tonight with Rochester High as the opponents at the George Washington Junior High floor. The preliminary game will find the New Castle and Rochester Reserves battling. The first game starts at 7:15 o'clock. The doors of the Junior High building will swing open at 6:30 o'clock.

Start Of Second Half

The game tonight marks the start of the second half of the league season. New Castle in the first half mopped up on New Brighton, Beaver Falls, Ellwood City and Rochester, and fell before Butler High. Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh enters the second half of the league season with misgiving. The graduation of Captain Johnny Uram leaves New Castle with a big hole to fill. Battley and Kelly are the two young candidates who have been fighting hard for the starting post.

There has been no indication on the part of Coach Bridenbaugh as to which of the two boys will get the nod. Then there is this man Miles to consider. He is a comer. When Ridley finds the going tough at center, Miles is rushed into the game. It may be also that with Miles and Kelly both in the lineup that New Castle can command some respect. Both of the new men tower over six feet. Either of them would be good for the foul line pivot play.

Revamped Lineup.

New Castle will have a revamped lineup for the second half that much is assured. Coach Bridenbaugh has been using Reiber, Ridley, Kominic and Teplica at the guard jobs and has been experimenting with Kelly and Battley at the forwards. Teplica is either a guard or forward, and can be switched around whenever it becomes necessary.

Rochester High will present a smoother team than the one that New Castle beat in the opening game of the first half. The red and black passers won that game by a lopsided count, but of recent date Rochester has taken the measure of both New Brighton and Ellwood City and are out to make a lot of noise in the second half.

Locals Must Win.

New Castle must win tonight to stay out in front with this clever Butler aggregation. New Brighton is playing at Butler and may cause some trouble for the Heinzermen. Ellwood City is playing at Beaver Falls.

Faculty Manager Gardner is making arrangements to handle a big crowd. New Castle in their last few home games have played before packed houses. Interest in the New Castle team is at fever heat with the Bridenbaughmen deadlocked for the lead.

Gardner announced today that Al Slack, veteran Pittsburgh official would handle the game. Slack is one of the best in Western Pennsylvania.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

James Wagner of 1307 Wilmington avenue, today displayed a score sheet of a baseball game played between the Neshannocks of New Castle and Braddock, September 14, 1875. Among those who played for the Neshannocks was the late Gene Richardson. He played left field and in the game scored two put-outs and two runs. The score was kept by Amos Wagner, brother to James. The umpire was J. S. Carlton. It is believed that all of the members of the team which lined up against Braddock that day have passed beyond. They were: Hall, catcher; Hauk, pitcher; Junkin, third base; Dickson, first base; Bennett, shortstop; Warnock, right field; Richardson, left field; Lyons, second base and Charleston, center field.

Fans who like science ought to see plenty of it tonight when Midget Wolgast, flyweight champion of the world meets Jackie Wilson in a 10 round bout at Pittsburgh.

United States will play Mexico in the first round of the North American zone of the Davis cup competition. Cuba and Canada will also meet in a North American zone, and the zone winner will play the South American surviving country for the right to match strokes with the champion of the European zone in which 24 countries have challenged. The ultimate winner will challenge France, cup holder for six years.

J. N. Bozeman, jr., was forced to bow before the cue skill of Welker Cochran last night at Chicago. The score was 50 to 40 for 41 innings in the world three cushion billiards championship play.

Lawther May Shift Lineup For Duke Tilt

Siljander To Play Forward; Hunneke May Be At Guard Post

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 3—Coach John Lawther may do some shifting in the Westminster College court team lineup for the game with Duquesne at Beaver Falls on Saturday night.

Captain "Whitey" Siljander, Pittsburgh, who has been used at guard all season, will probably start at forward. Another probable forward starter is "Bill" Douglass, Iselin lad who has been alternating at forward and center. Gerald Newton, sharpshooting forward, will be held in reserve.

"Wes" Bennett, Akron, O., will no doubt start at center. "Swede" Hunneke, Baldwin, N. Y. sophomore will play one guard and John Wilhelm, Kittanning, will be at the other guard post. This will give the Titans a rugged, tall team which should give a good account of itself against "Chick" Davies' great Duke outfit.

The Titans played improved ball against Thiel on Wednesday night at Greenville, and, especially in the first half, exhibited a brand new offensive which will be hard to stop. The Titans realize, of course, that Duquesne has one of the fastest and smartest outfits in the district, and the Duke victory over the stellar Geneva team Wednesday night at Pittsburgh has given Lawther and his men plenty to think about.

Following the Duquesne game on Saturday night at Beaver Falls, Westminster plays four home games in two weeks, then takes to the road for six contests, and ends the season with Grove City at home March 7.

Firpo Beats Hybert

Bathrobe Proves Jinx To Elmo Who Loses Decision In Return Encounter

Having been bombarded with boohs every possible chance during his 10 round fight with Floyd Hybert to whom he lost a doubtful decision Henry Firpo asked for a return bout with the Ashtabula middleweight and he demonstrated November 5 that Hybert was just another fighter. Firpo won in a walk.

The peculiar thing about the second fight was that Firpo got a thunderous round of applause when he entered the ring. When he was "beaten" October 8 the fans were tickled pink. The applause must have put some "pep" in his fightin' blood.

Firpo made Hybert fight the kind of a fight Mr. Firpo's son wanted. Hybert didn't win a round and got an even break in only rounds five and ninth. His complaint of being hit low in the tenth fell on Referee Kennedy's ears but they listened not.

Rod Davis, Frenchy the butcher and some of the other boys who liked Elmo's way of punching foes and amusing fans presented the light-heavyweight with a nice bathrobe. It proved a jinx. Steve Brown won a deserved decision over Elmo in a four round preliminary bout.

In the next four round battle Tom O'Leary the wild swinging boy took on Bernie Dugan. O'Leary kissed the floor for a count in the third but came up fighting and landed a draw when the fourth was ended.

Frankie Rio defeated Louie Adair of Toledo in six rounds and Joey Goodman and Johnny Connolly crawled through the ropes for their six round semifinal. Joey spun Connolly, clipped him with a couple of left hooks and Connolly passed out in 45½ seconds.

Athletics Have Young Ball Club

Connie Mack Fires Simmons, Haas And Dykes And Banks On The Youngsters

FIGURES HURLERS BEST IN LEAGUE

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Feb. 3—If Connie Mack's athletics are weaker this year than they were last, you may lay the fact to the depression. With a winner on the ball field and a loser in the box office, the ancient Connie simply had to lop Al Simmons and his $33,000 contract from the payroll, to say little or nothing of Mule Haas and Jimmy Dykes.

Connie will start the season with a young but by no means inexperienced team. On paper, the team figures no better than third in the American League race but ball games, as Ping Bodie used to say, ain't won with no pencil. Mack may see something in some of his youngsters that have escaped the eyes of the outsider.

Young Outfield

He will put Doc Cramer in center, Ed Coleman in left and either the aged Bing Miller or Louis Finney in right.

Finney comes highly touted from the coast league but the writer hears several scouts who saw him in action say he'll have his troubles with major league pitching.

The infield will have Jimmy Foxx on first, bishop on second, McNair at short and Frank Higgins, a newcomer from Portland, at third. Higgins hit 31 homers on the coast last year but his fielding is said to be something less than great. The infield is steady on the right but it figures to be shaky on the left and shaky infields have never been found on pennant winners.

Cochrane Behind Plate

Mickey Cochrane still must be listed as one of the truly great catchers of the game.

The real strength of the A's, of course, lies in their pitchers. Grove, Earnshaw, Mahaffey, Welberg and Freitas won 86 games last year and they should not be less effective this season. Lewis Krausse may be about ready to step up as a regular and some of the recruits, notably Claset from Montreal, may show enough to stick.

In any event, it would be foolish to try to rule them out of the picture. They have a chance, a good one as they stand; a great one if the infield steadies the youngsters live up to Mack's expectations.

(International News Service)

Simultaneously with the announcement of Wagner's acquisition, William E. Benswanger, club president, stated other club coaches will be retained.

Wagner previously had declined several coaching offers from the Pirates. His signature brought a smile from Benswanger and a brief comment, "This is a great thrill for me."

More Baseball Players Sign

Lloyd Brown Of St. Louis Browns And Hack Wilson Join Holdout Ranks

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Another big batch of ball players was in the fold today, but two holdouts registered protests.

Lloyd Brown, southpaw pitcher obtained by the St. Louis Browns from Washington, returned his contract unsigned, and Hack Wilson left loose a wail in Martinsburg, W. Va.

The chunky Brooklyn outfielder, who got $16,500 last year, almost fainted ten days ago when the Dodgers offered him approximately $9,000 for 1933. Offered only $500 more than that yesterday as a "compromise," he declared he wouldn't sign less than $14,850.

These squawks were as a voice in the wilderness, however. Brooklyn reported the signing of Fred Heimach, veteran southpaw pitcher. The Red Sox lined up outfielder Roy Johnson, outfielder Joe Vosmik came to terms with Cleveland, pitcher Ed Durham and shortstop Hal Rhyne signed with the White Sox, and the Athletics reported everybody lined up except two of their star pitchers, George Earnshaw and Rube Walberg.

Giants In Need Of Pitchers Is Terry's Outlook

New York Giants Will Be Tough To Beat If Given Winning Pitcher

WANT CARLETON OR DIZZY DEAN

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The New York Giants are prepared to give cash, a great deal of cash, for Tex Carleton, Derringer or Mr. Dean, the dizzy one of Sportsman's Park, St. Louis, Mo.

George Davis will "make" the New York Giants. His arrival made the Phils last year. His departure will un-make them this year.

Ray Benge won't help the Dodgers much. Joe Judge will help them considerably but not quite enough. The Dodgers, it seems, are beyond help.

Terry Confident

Dazzy Vance won't be permitted to get out of the National League . . . But he isn't worth the sacrifice of player-strength. . . The New York Giants have more power than any team in the league, except the Phils. . . The Cardinals can't get anywhere with that "comical" infield. . . The New York Giants have youth, hustle and power. . . The New York Giants will finish one, two, three.

Who says so? Why, Manager Bill Terry, of the New York Giants. He's around town today, speaking his mind and paying his respects, the same being harmless and inexpensive, as payments go. He doesn't think much of the Dodgers. He isn't impressed with or by the Cards, Braves and Phils. He thinks the Pirates and Cubs are the clubs to beat, a bit of original thinking that came to Manager Terry in the dead of night when his resistance was low.

Lindstrom To Help

"Lindstrom will help the Pirates, Herman will help the Cubs," says he. "They're the class of the league. The Phillies have the power. But their pitching———."

Here words failed Manager Terry, it seemed. The Cardinal infield, with the possibility of Frisch or Adams at shortstop, Hornsby on second base and Collins on first base, left him equally distressed. So did the Braves with too much of bad pitching and too little of Maranville remaining.

Canzoneri Will Battle Townsend

Tony Canzoneri Lightweight Champ Will Make Start As Welterweight

If the former New Orleans bootblack succeeds in capturing his fourth title, he will surpass the record of Bob Fitzsimmons, who won the middleweight, light-heavyweight and heavyweight diadems.

The champion is a 3 to 1 favorite.

Speculation Over Reports On Vare

Congressman's Speech At Germantown Gives "Inside Information"

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 3.—Speculation was rife today over the purported "inside information" on the financial affairs of William S. Vare, the veteran political leader, which Congressman Benjamin M. Golder gave the men's forum of the Unitarian church at Germantown last night.

Golder, who asserted he saw the Vare income tax returns for the 1926, when the political leader was elected to the United States senate but denied a seat, declared Vare had received $250,000 from Heyman and Goodman, contractors for part of the Broad street subway.

"The return showed $250,000 from Heyman and Goodman and I believe it came from Broad street subway work," Golder asserted.

Saw Big Checks.

"Among other items, I saw one representing an investment of $500,000 in United States Steel and another of $350,000 in Heyman and Goodman. The $250,000 item from Heyman and Goodman represented cash, according to the return."

The congressman further asserted he saw a $100,000 check, drawn by the late Thomas E. Mitten, head of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, which he declared, was cashed in New York. The proceeds were turned over to Vare for use in his senatorial campaign, Golder charged.

St. Moritz Evenings

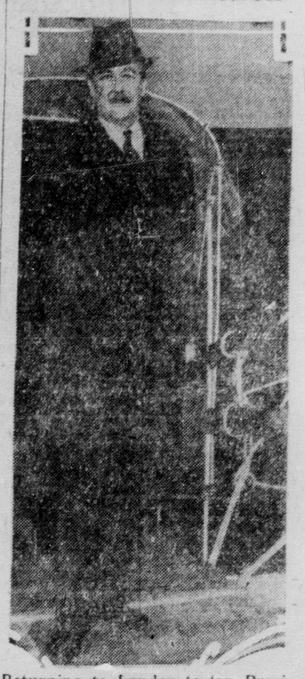
The evening at St. Moritz, the snowy Swiss winter resort, commences with dinner. Tea is drunk in one's ski-suit or skating costume, then one changes into one's formal clothes for the evening. Both simple and gorgeous attire should be taken to St. Moritz, for the Grandes Fetes form a brilliant contrast to the sportsmanlike aspect of the daytime stylescape. Sketched in Paris is this Lelong gown of white wool crepe with turquoise blue velvet sleeves.

Has New Beer Plan

John F. Ryan

A plan for distribution of beer in every state where legalized, selling for 10 cents a glass and providing maximum revenue for each state, has been advanced by John F. Ryan, Indiana state representative, of Terre Haute. The Ryan plan would license 15 breweries in each state at $5,000 a year. The breweries would have exclusive control of beer in their own state. The brewers would distribute through wholesalers, to be licensed at $2,500 annually, and they in turn would work through retailers each of whom would pay $1,000 to the state. Beer would be sold in bottles only.

On Debt Mission



Returning to London to lay President-elect Roosevelt's views on the proposed debt conference before his government, Sir Ronald Lindsay, British Ambassador to the U. S., is shown as he boarded the liner Europa at New York. The envoy had a four-hour conference with the President-elect at the "Little White House," Warm Springs, Ga., on the eve of his departure.

A Humble Hitler

Earliest Bird

First man on the spot for Spring training, Babe Herman, former star outfielder of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is shown wearing his Chicago Cubs uniform for the first time, as he waits at Los Angeles for the call to the Catalina Island training camp. Babe was traded by Brooklyn to the Cincinnati Reds last year, and at the end of the season he was traded again to the Cubs.

STOCKS

Stock Market Is Irregular

Opens Firm But Heavy Selling Develops In Early Stage

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Heavy selling in the utilities and the rubber stocks on the price war in the tire industry brought a resuption of the decline in the stock market today after a firm opening.

Consolidated Gas and American Telephone again bore the brunt of the selling in the utilities.

Goodyear was the weakest in the rubber group.

Gold mining stocks again ran counter to the trend with Homestake Mining leading the group to new highs for the year.

Steel issues were steadier, with U. S. Steel common and preferred holding in a narrow range around the previous close.

Motor stocks continued to meet heavy selling on dividend fears and Chrysler and General Motors were driven to new lows for the year. Dupont was weak in sympathy with General Motors.

Tobacco stocks weakened with the rest of the general list.

Tubers At Beaver Falls Tonight

Benedict Men Hope To Start Second Half Of Section 3 Card With Victory

HARD FOUGHT GAME IS IN PROSPECT

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 3—Ellwood City High will invade Beaver Falls this evening with a big following in view of the student tickets being sold at the local high school today.

Coach Benedict's green squad is determined to start the second half of the Section 3 schedule on the right foot and avenge their two point defeat her earlier in the season. The squad has been put through two beneficial workouts since their game with Beaver last Tuesday and look rather promising. The game with the Tigers tonight will show the truth worth of the new team. Bolotin, Johnson, and Bunny are the only old members left. Captain Tom Barnes was lost by graduation and Vandrello and Latiano through inelligilibility. Three members of the reserve squad were promoted to the varsity as a results of this.

The new combination of Bolotin who has been made Captain and Scopelite at the forwards; Bunny and Tammaro at the guards; and Johnson at the pivot position has been clicking to some satisfaction the past two days. Much improvement has been apparent since their first game.

On the other hand the Heckathorne men have been weakened very little if any. Beaver Falls followers are of the opinion that the team has been strengthened. True they have lost a worthy guard, Brununsky, through graduation, but they have gained Frank Tachovsky who has been a star for the St. Mary's team of Beaver Falls. Tachovsky has been made eligible by the W. P. I. A. L. committee this semester. With this one exception Beaver Falls' line-up will be practically the same as in the previous game.

The Ellwoodians will be out to upset the championship aspirations of Beaver Falls High on their own floor tonight.

Reports To State Take Up Time Of Sheriffs' Office

Complete Details Of Prisoners And Executions Must Be Made Out

Reports demanded by the various state departments are consuming considerable time of the clerical force in the office of Sheriff Frank H. Johnston. Sheriff Johnston stated this morning that nearly half the time of his office is taken up with the details of these reports.

For instance there must be daily reports on all the prisoners taken in or discharged, then there must be weekly and monthly reports. The sheriff is required to get all the data about each individual case. He must find out where the man was born, where he lives, married or single, his occupation, ancestry, what crime he has committed, how long he is to serve, if he has ever been arrested before, and a lot of other information. With reference to executions issued there is also a lot of red tape. The description of the property must be given, the amount of the mortgage, how long it is in arrears, the probable value of the property, for what purpose it was used, and other facts. This all takes time.

Similar reports must be made on executions issued on personal property, in addition to complete figures as to the receipts and expenditures of the office. It would be possible to do the work of the office with less help, says the sheriff, if it were not for the work heaped upon the office by the various state reports.

Senate Sergeant-At-Arms Must Prove Charges Made Against House Members

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3—Demand that David S. Barry, sergeant-at-arms of the senate, either prove written charges that certain members of congress accept money for their votes or apologize to the house was made in the house today by Rep. Laguardia (R) of New York.

Laguardia read a few lines from an article in the February issue of the "New Outlook," of which Alfred E. Smith is editor, saying in effect that there are not many out-and-out crooks in congress but that those who took money for their votes were well known.

ROAMING

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

Perhaps we're getting all the complaints on this Coitsville, O., situation, but it certainly calls for some remedy. The Cost Hunters of Coitsville, a couple of constables, are enlarging the scope of their activities and very shortly it looks as though they might put a toll gate up on the highway.

Another local motorist got caught over there recently. He was speeding along at the unheard rate of 38 miles per hour, which is three whole miles over what the road signs advise. Mounting his trusty gasoline steed the Night Rider haled him into court in Campbell and he was fined $38. The local man had only $19 on him and them compromised for that.

The reason advanced now is that you are speeding inside the corporate limits of Youngstown, which is technically true. Some years ago, in an attempt to raise its assessed valuation and thus increase its bonding power, the City of Youngstown took in a lot of territory, some of it extending almost to the Coitsville cross roads.

A comparison would be if New Castle annexed all the land between here and Harlansburg. Technically you are inside the Youngstown limits just outside of Coitsville and the charge can be made that you are speeding inside the city limits. The Youngstown Motor Club is trying to clear up the nasty situation but against the machinations of the constables are powerless.

We would suggest therefore that if you must go to Youngstown, turn at New Bedford and go in that way. About the only way you can be sure you won't be picked up and bled for a lot of costs, is to stay at home.

The old comparison between city and country schools seems to be gone forever. Walk into the Shenango Township school at East New Castle and you imagine you are in a city school. Size, equipment and enrollment, all of them compare. At the present time Shenango has 960 students.

Some of the faculty of both Shenango and Bessemer schools are sore today, not at each other but among themselves, a physical soreness. The faculties tangled on the basketball floor last night and once supple muscles that flashed across a basketball court for some college five or six years ago, couldn't readjust themselves to the strain.

Volant College Memory Book Is Making Progress

Success Of Former Local College Publication Assured

Response on the part of former students of Volant College to the call for material for the Volant College Memory Book, which is to be issued in the course of the next few months has been remarkable in every way.

More than a hundred portraits and pictures of former students, the old dormitory, the old college building, scenes along the Neshannock near the college, groups of students and the faculty have been received.

But there are still other pictures and biographical sketches that should be turned in and it is hoped that every former student will see to it that they are sent in within the next few weeks, as it is hoped to get the printing of the book underway about March.

It is desired that everybody who ever attended the college will be included in the publication and a short sketch of each where possible.

This information and pictures of educational activities at Volant college some forty years ago should be sent without delay to Prof. A. A. Galbreath at Rogers, Ohio.

May Force State To Furnish Bond

County Treasurers In Western States Have Trouble Getting Bonds

(International News Service)

DENVER, Colo.—Colorado may go into the bonding business as a result of failure of State Treasurer Homer F. Bedford and at least 19 county treasurers in the state to obtain bond from regular bonding companies.

Legislation providing for a state bonding agency was prepared for introduction into the twenty-ninth general assembly recently.

State laws provide that state funds deposited in state banks be protected by bonds. The cost of these bonds runs about two per cent and the banks must pay a statutory minimum of 2½ per cent interest, making the total cost 4½ per cent. Bankers declare they have plenty of money obtained at lower rates and are refusing the state deposits.

Other western states are facing similar difficulties. Chas. A. Stain elected states treasurer of Utah and sworn into office, was unable to take over the responsibilities of the office because of his failure to post the required bond.

Anti-Saloonists Plan New League

(International News Service)

WESTERVILLE, O.—With youths for its members and "The Olympians" for its name, a new national temperance movement is soon to be started by the Anti-Saloon League.

Dry authorities will be studied and the claims of the wets will be analyzed. From data presented, the members are expected to be taught in detail about the physical, moral and social wreckage of liquor," and the "benefits of prohibition."

The slogan of the organization, declares S. P. McNaught, Ohio superintendent of the league, who will launch the campaign, is to be: "We have just begun to fight."

Benefit Party Of Y. W. C. A. Is Well Attended

International Institute Committee Sponsors Bridge Last Night

With one hundred twenty-five people in attendance the benefit White Elephant bridge party at the Y. W. C. A. last night was a decided success. The party was given by the International Institute committee in benefit of the emergency fund being raised by the Young Women's Christian Association.

Bridge, 500, anagrams and picture puzzles furnished amusement for all of the guests. The tables were arranged on the second floor of the building. The guests arrived at eight o'clock; each brought a "white elephant" present.

The "white elephants" were exchanged and everyone was pleased with what they received. Some of the "white elephants" were comical, some very useful. They ranged through everything from five dozen eggs to dishes and towels.

Mrs. S. E. Crawford won both the door prize and the award for high score in contract bridge. Miss Katherine Barzey won the auction bridge prize and Hoarse Ward took the 500 prize. The door prize was a beautiful orchid corsage contributed by Butz Brothers.

Cake and coffee were served during the evening by the committee in charge of the evening's arrangements, with the following members: Mrs. E. B. Ray, chairman; Miss Rose Barber, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. O. P. Brown, Mrs. L. Cassella, Mrs. Archibald Davis, Mrs. Robert E. Fleming, Mrs. Lillian Keder, Mrs. Kubinski, Mrs. Nora McCann, Mrs. Carl Reed, Mrs. J. Russell Urmson, Mrs. Vlahos.

The affair was a success both socially and financially. Proceeds from the ticket sale will be a material help to the emergency fund. A considerable number of tickets were sold to people of the community who were unable to attend the party.

Bi-color and tri-color effects are conspicuous in all the new millinery.

Pearl buttons, clips and buckles play an important part in the decorative style scheme.
